THE ALIENIST AND NEUROLOGIST

ST. LOUIS MO.

Vol. XXXVI. FEBRUARY, 1915. No. 1.

A JOURNAL OF NEUROLOGY AND PSYCHOLOGY PSYCHIATRY AND NEURIATRY.

FOR THE NEUROLOGIST, GENERAL PRACTITIONER AND SAVANT.

PANOPEPTON

In clinical experience Panopepton has been found to serve well its purpose, often even better than was anticipated, and as physiological chemistry progresses in the "newer knowledge of foods and metabolism," it reveals the more clearly, confirms the more strongly, the scientific principles on which this food is based—with respect to comprehensiveness, content and "balance" of food constituents, "state" of the protein, of the carbohydrate, etc. In fact, Panopepton stands today well supported by both science and practice as a resource of peculiar value in therapeutic feeding.
