Seven SETUPS: American Politics Are Available Now for Class Use

1. Voting Behavior: The 1972 Election by Bruce D. Bowen, C. Anthony Broh, Charles L. Prysby.
2. Political Socialization Across the Generations by Paul Allen Beck, Jere W. Bruner, L. Douglas Dobson.
3. Political Participation by F. Christopher Arterton, Harlan Hahn.
4. The Supreme Court in American Politics: Policy Through Law by John Paul Ryan, C. Neal Tate.
5. U.S. Energy, Environment and Economic Problems: A Public Policy Simulation by Barry Hughes.
6. Representation in the United States Congress: 1973 by Ray A. Geigle and Peter J. Hartjens.
7. The Dynamics of Political Budgeting: A Public Policy Simulation by Marvin K. Hoffman.

Four SETUPS: Cross-National and World Politics
Will Be Available for Class Use, Winter 1977

1. Comparative Voting Behavior by Herbert B. Asher, Bradley Richardson.
2. The Budgetary Process in Cross-National Perspective by John Creighton Campbell, John M. Echols.
3. Conflict in the Middle East: A Public Policy Simulation by Karen Ann Feste.
4. Are Political Values Really Changing? by Charles Taylor.

Each SETUPS is a module that can be taught in one to two weeks. SETUPS were designed to supplement instruction in introductory courses. But SETUPS have been field tested successfully in upper division courses. SETUPS were developed by faculty in workshops supported by a grant from the National Science Foundation to the American Political Science Association and hosted by the Inter-University Consortium for Political and Social Research, summer, 1974 and summer 1975.

Each SETUPS Module Includes a Monograph and a Data Set

The monograph is a 5½" x 8½" paperback of approximately 100 pages with:

1. A substantive essay on the topic.
2. Analytical exercises.
3. Instructions about how to do the exercises.
4. Suggestions for further readings and exercises.
5. A code book for the data set.

The data sets are prepared and distributed by the Inter-University Consortium for Political and Social Research. SETUPS data can be ordered for use with SPSS, OSIRIS or as card image.

Each SETUPS will cost $3.50. Lower prices are arranged for bulk orders. An order for 25 or more SETUPS will entitle you to the data sets for all the SETUPS at no extra charge.

To Order SETUPS

Order the SETUPS monographs from the American Political Science Association through your bookstore. Ask your bookstore to include your name when they place the SETUPS order with APSA. When we confirm the bookstore order, we shall send you a data-specification form if your school does not have the SETUPS data set already.

THE AMERICAN POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION AND THE UNIVERSITY CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDIES ANNOUNCE

A New Annual Reference Publication

UNITED
POLITICAL SCIENCE DOCUMENTS

United States Political Science Documents (USPSD) is the published version of a computer-based file of political science information being developed continually by the University Center for International Studies, University of Pittsburgh, in conjunction with the American Political Science Association.

Over the past ten years the political, social, and policy sciences have been inundated with an increasing flow of journal information. Not until now has a convenient sorting, filing, and evaluation process been developed to enable the academic community to keep up with the masses of information in a timely manner. This is why USPSD was created.

Volume I of USPSD will include between 2,000 and 2,500 documents published during 1975. The set will be available from UCIS Publications during the summer of 1976. For further information or to place your order, write to UCIS Publications at the address below.

USPSD will enable you conveniently to keep abreast of all the major journals in the field of political, social, and policy science, such as:

American Political Science Review
Comparative Political Studies
Comparative Politics
Economic Development and Cultural Change
Foreign Affairs
Foreign Policy
International and Intercultural Communication Annual International Development Review

International Education and Cultural Change
International Interaction
International Organization
International Relations
International Studies Quarterly
Journal of Conflict Resolution
Journal of International Affairs
Policy Analysis
Policy Studies Journal
Studies in Comparative Communism
Studies in Comparative International Development
World Affairs
World Politics

USPSD will be an annual reference publication which examines and analyzes every article in over 120 major political, social and policy science journals.

Each entry in USPSD provides:

1. Author;
2. Title;
3. Journal Source and pagination;
4. An Abstract that describes the scope, purpose, methods employed, and results obtained in each article;
5. A listing of Special Features that include titles of all tables, graphs, figures, and maps used in each article;
6. A listing of Authors Cited in footnotes or references;
7. A listing of Key Subject Descriptors attributed to each article;
8. A listing of the major Geographic Areas referred to in each article;

9. A listing of Proper Names of organizations, political institutions, laws, etc. mentioned in each article.

USPSD will be published annually in TWO PARTS. The abstracts of the journal articles will comprise PART II and include those items listed above. PART I consists of five indexes to all the articles abstracted in Part II; they are divided according to:

1. Author(s) of each article;
2. Descriptor Subjects that are attributed to each article (The descriptions are taken from over 3,000 terms listed in the Political Science Thesaurus);
3. Geographic Areas referred to in each article;
4. Proper Names of organizations, political institutions, laws, etc. mentioned in each article;
5. Journal in which each article is published.

USPSD can be purchased as a two volume set—PARTS I & II—or PART I, the indexes, can be purchased separately. Prices for both are as follows:

	Regular price	APSA-member price
PARTS I & II (Index & documents)	$90.00	$75.00
PART I (Index only)	$75.00	$60.00

Important New Texts

THE POLITICS OF INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC RELATIONS

Joan Edelman Spero, Columbia University

- Ideally suited for courses on international relations, world politics, American foreign policy, or international organization.
- Focuses on the links between international economics and international politics, examining the economic interdependence of states and analyzing the key issues involved in the East-West and North-South systems of trade.
- Traces the development of international institutions and their response to the political management of international economic relations.

February approx. 300 pages $4.95 (tentative), paperbound

AT ISSUE: POLITICS IN THE WORLD ARENA

Second Edition

Steven L. Spiegel, University of California—Los Angeles

- A new, thorough revision of a best-selling text that has been hailed as:

"An excellent reader... a good supplemental text for courses in world politics."

—Elsworth P. Woods, Drake University

"Very good treatment of real issues. I am using it now and the students really enjoy it."

—Walter Kivette, University of North Carolina

"Excellent in content, organization, and readability... thought provoking and stimulating."

—Sandy L. Royster, Wheaton College

- New to the second edition are twenty-eight lively articles on such current topics as the energy crisis and OPEC, terrorism, international intelligence, detente, the turmoil in Southern Africa and the Middle East, and arms limitation.

February approx. 380 pages $5.95 (tentative), paperbound

from St. Martin's Press

THE BUREAUCRATIC EXPERIENCE

Ralph P. Hummel, New York University

- A thoughtful new text for courses in public administration, organization theory, personnel administration, or organizational behavior that clearly brings the experience of bureaucratic social processes within the grasp of students and future administrators.
- Encourages students to view bureaucracy as an entirely new environment and analyzes the social, cultural, psychological, linguistic and political features of relationships within this environment.
- Combines practical illustrations and personal case studies with lucid syntheses of major theorists to give students an unusually broad view of how bureaucracies work.

March approx. 256 pages $5.95 (tentative), paperbound

AMERICAN DEMOCRACY AND WORLD POWER

Robert A. Isaak, Columbia University

- A provocative supplementary text for courses in American government, American foreign policy, American political thought, and American studies.
- Contemporary—focuses on the critical issues involved in the conflict between democratic ideals and superpower realities including national security and military aid.
- Describes and analyzes the traditional values of American political culture and challenges the student to respond to critical questions about America as a democracy and as a world power.

March approx. 272 pages $4.95 (tentative), paperbound

John H. Ferguson
and Dean E. McHenry

The most thorough revision in the thirty-year history of these highly successful texts. More than 50% rewritten, both books have been reduced in length, and the writing has been made simpler, clearer, and more readable for today's student.

Features you'll find in both texts

- Results of the 1976 presidential election are analyzed
- Traditional political concepts and practices are re-examined in light of current issues
- Thoughtful coverage is given to revenue sharing, election financing, Congressional reform and counter-reform, the energy crisis and the Federal response to it, the social security crisis, and other contemporary issues

Features you'll find in AMERICAN
SYSTEM OF GOVERNMENT

- Increased emphasis on citizen participation at the local level

College Division

- New discussion of finances and services including state and local debt
- Five chapters that explore in depth state and local government and the problems and challenges they face

THE AMERICAN CONSTITUTION, Third Edition

C. Herman Pritchett,
University of California, Santa Barbara

Now in its third edition -- the classic analytical examination of the Constitution. More than 1,000 Supreme Court cases are analyzed or cited. New to this edition: Coverage of every important constitutional issue that has arisen since the last edition -- including capital punishment, affirmative action, exclusionary zoning, abortion, and executive privilege. 1977, 704 pages, $16.50

GOVERNING URBAN AMERICA, Fifth Edition

Charles R. Adrian,
University of California, Riverside, and Charles Press,
Michigan State University

Written with sympathy for the problems of local government officials, this text presents a realistic appraisal of strengths and weaknesses of both government and citizens. New to this edition: New approaches to urban financing, especially revenue sharing; analysis of the trend toward structural change; reorganized and rewritten chapters on urban public policy and metropolitan areas; coverage of recent developments such as "neighborhood" government and minority and women candidates. 1977, 512 pages, $12.95

Prices subject to change.

UNDERSTANDING AMERICAN POLITICS THROUGH FICTION,
Second Edition

Myles L. Clowers,
San Diego City College,
and Lorin Letendre,
CTB/McGraw-Hill and Cabrillo College

Organized to accommodate either the topical (institutions) or the systems approach, this paperback features writers from the entire political spectrum. New to this edition: A new chapter on the Constitution; a new chapter on policy; and new selections on political polling, political campaigning, interest groups, nativism and ethnic politics, bureaucratic discretion of the CIA, and plea bargaining. 1977, 256 pages, paper, $4.95*

POLICE ADMINISTRATION, Fourth Edition

The late Orlando W. Wilson and Roy Clinton McLaren,
Chief of Police, Arlington, Virginia and former Director, Field Operations
Division, International Association of Chiefs of Police

This text covers all aspects of police administration, establishing a coherent system which is internally consistent. New to this edition: A new chapter on team policing; a new chapter on management theory and organizational behavior; and new material on the impact of women and minorities in law enforcement, the implications of several important pieces of recent legislation, management by objectives, zero-base budgeting, enhancement of productivity, crime resistance, SWAT, hostage negotiation, and technological advances. 1977, 768 pages, $13.95

Politics in France

Third Edition

Henry W. Ehrmann

Since 1971, when the Second Edition of this leading study of politics in France appeared, that country has gone through one national referendum, one parliamentary election, one presidential election, and a rather drastic restructuring of its party system. This new Third Edition will help students understand these important events in both their new and old contexts.

Professor Ehrmann was also prompted to write this revision by the continuing, impressive output of studies on modern French politics. Ehrmann critically reviews the most important discussions and indicates major areas that remain open for further investigation.

Paper approx. 384 pages
August 1976 $5.95 tent.

Cases in Comparative Politics

Third Edition

James B. Christoph

Indiana University

Bernard E. Brown

City University of New York

Extensively revised and updated, this new Third Edition of CASES IN COMPARATIVE POLITICS features eight case studies—two each on Britain, France, Germany, and the U.S.S.R.—that examine foreign and domestic policy-making in those countries. All of the cases were written by specialists expressly for this volume. New cases on university reform in France, codetermination in West Germany, and Ostpolitik have been added to this edition, and important new material has been incorporated into all the other cases. An introductory section deals with the case method in comparative politics and the concept of decision-making. Paper approx. 368 pages
August 1976 $6.95 tent.

The Basics of American Politics

Gary Wasserman

Medgar Evers College,
CUNY

with Ed Beard and Marsha Hurst

A new, brief and inexpensive introductory text. Simply and straightforwardly, this lean volume deals with the most elemental structures and functions of American government. The theme of politics as a game unifies the book and focuses attention on the dynamic competition for power and values. Emphasis is placed on the effects of, and our constant involvement in, politics.

American Government Readings and Cases Fifth Edition

Peter Woll

Brandeis University

AMERICAN GOVERNMENT—now available in an updated Fifth Edition—focuses on issues that are central to an understanding of the governmental process. The new edition provides the same excellent coverage of Constitutional cases and historical and analytical background materials as the earlier editions. But 40% of the readings in this edition are new; they deal with contemporary problems and the stresses that have been placed on the political system in the 1970s. A new Instructor's Manual is also available.

U.S. Foreign Policy and World Order

James A. Nathan
James K. Oliver

Both at the University of Delaware

Nathan and Oliver's outstanding new foreign policy text offers: (1) a detailed, comprehensive overview of U.S. foreign policy since World War II; (2) a systematic, unifying theme: the evolution of military force and the threat of force as the primary instrumentality of American foreign policy; (3) a synthesis of the political-strategic and economic elements of U.S. foreign policy; and (4) an integrated analysis of foreign policy and domestic institutions.

Politics in the American States

A Comparative Analysis
Third Edition

Herbert Jacob

Northwestern University

Kenneth N. Vines

SUNY, Buffalo

The leading text in the field of state politics has been substantially revised and rewritten for its new Third Edition. It features a new chapter on the regulation of the environment, a new chapter on Federalism, five new authors (all chapters are either new or rewritten), and a greater emphasis on lucid explanation rather than statistical analysis.

Political Change in the Metropolis

John J. Harrigan

Hamline University

POLITICAL CHANGE IN THE METROPOLIS is a new text that integrates coverage of central-city, suburban, and metropolitan-level politics, as well as the politics of Federal involvement in urban affairs. One major analytical theme—the bias of political change—draws the author's material into a coherent and logical argument. Thorough coverage of machine politics, ethnic politics, the political reform movement, and community control is provided.

WHAT IS A "CAUCUSITE"?

THE FOLLOWING ARE RECENT CANDIDATES SPONSORED BY THE

CAUCUS FOR A NEW POLITICAL SCIENCE:

PETER BACHRACH
JAMES DAVID BARBER
CHRISTIAN BAY
WALTER DEAN BURNHAM
JAMES MACGREGOR BURNS
KENNETH DOLBEARE
MURRAY EDELMAN
RICHARD FALK
BETTY GLAD
CHARLES V. HAMILTON

STANLEY HOFFMANN
PHILIP E. JACOB
HANS MORGENTHAU
JEWEL PRESTAGE
JAMES W. PROTHRO
INEZ SMITH REID
DANKWART A. RUSTOW
MULFORD Q. SIBLEY
IRENE TINKER
MARVIN ZONIS

If you read their work, and that of other "Caucusites," you will discover no one all-consuming truth running throughout. Instead, you will find differences of methodology, of ideology, of conclusion, of prescription. The unifying factor is devotion to responsible scholarship and to the right of all to pursue scholarship in whatever way they choose. This year's Caucus candidates for APSA office share the agreement to disagree, believing that it is vital to the expansion of knowledge and the articulation of a new political science. That is why they are Caucus candidates. That is why we urge you to vote for them.
