STUDIES IN THE PHILOSOPHY OF HISTORY

Editor: GEORGE H. NADEL

Executive Editor: RICHARD T. VANN

Editorial Committee: RAYMOND ARON, ISAIAH BERLIN, FERNAND BRAUDEL, SIDNEY HOOK, MAURICE MANDELBAUM, A. D. MOMIGLIANO, JOHN PASSMORE, W. H. WALSH, C. VANN WOODWARD

History and Theory is the first international journal devoted to the philosophy of history. Monographs, essays, exchanges, reviews, and bibliographies are published in four areas: the theory of history; the method of history; historiography; and the relationship between problems in historical theory and method and those in economics, psychology, and other social sciences.

As one of the most important, vital, and comprehensive interdisciplinary journals of our time, it has elicited enthusiastic world-wide response.

Frequency: three numbers and a Beiheft per year.

Subscriptions: $6.00 per year. Subscriptions accepted in advance for as many years as desired.

Established 1960. The current Volume 1969 is Volume VIII. Complete runs and individual back numbers also available. Write for more information. Send subscriptions to:

WAR/PEACE REPORT

An independent monthly magazine presenting fact and opinion on progress toward a world of peace with justice

"War/Peace Report is one of the most perceptive and responsible periodicals devoted to matters of war and peace."

U THANT

The only American magazine devoted solely to the peace question, War/Peace Report presents up-to-date coverage of world crisis areas such as Vietnam and the Middle East and in-depth analyses of the long-term problems of achieving peace. Experts of various nations and outlooks express their views in the pages of War/Peace Report on such issues as disarmament, the development of world rule of law, the U.N. and U.S. foreign policy. On many of these questions, War/Peace Report has presented direct dialogues between spokesmen of the East and West. War/Peace Report regularly reviews the latest books on war/peace issues and offers a monthly round-up of the activities of the peace movement.

In recent issues: George W. Ball discusses "Making World Corporations into World Citizens" . . . Richard A. Falk reports on his recent visit to North Vietnam in "A Vietnam Settlement: The View from Hanoi" . . . four experts on military and foreign policy, Donald G. Brennan, Robert Strausz-Hupé, Jerome Wiesner and Adam Yarmolinsky, participate in "The Great Nuclear Debate: Parity vs. Superiority". Other authors have included Senator George McGovern, Hans Morgenthau, Louis B. Sohn, Norman Cousins, Wilfred Burchett, Herman Kahn and many others.

Comparative Studies in Society and History is a forum for presentation and discussion of new research into problems of change and stability that recur in human societies through time or in the contemporary world. It sets up a working alliance between specialists in all branches of the social sciences and humanities. Debate and review articles bring the general reader in touch with current findings and issues.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Contributions may be descriptive, analytical or theoretical. Any article not in itself comparative may be accepted if it lends itself to comment that will place it in comparative perspective. Correspondence with the editors prior to the submission of articles will help to enable them to obtain such comment or a companion study. Emphasis in comparative studies may be either on similarities or, if these are significant enough and call for some recasting of generalisations, on differences. All contributions and editorial correspondence should be sent to the Editors, Comparative Studies in Society and History, Department of History, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48104.

Two copies of each contribution, preferably accompanied by a stamped, addressed envelope, should be submitted. Both text and footnotes should be clearly typed with double spacing and wide margins; footnotes should appear on separate pages at the end of the article. Illustrations may be included by arrangement with the editors.

Contributors will receive 50 offprints bound in the journal covers. Any additional offprints must be ordered on receipt of the first proof.
