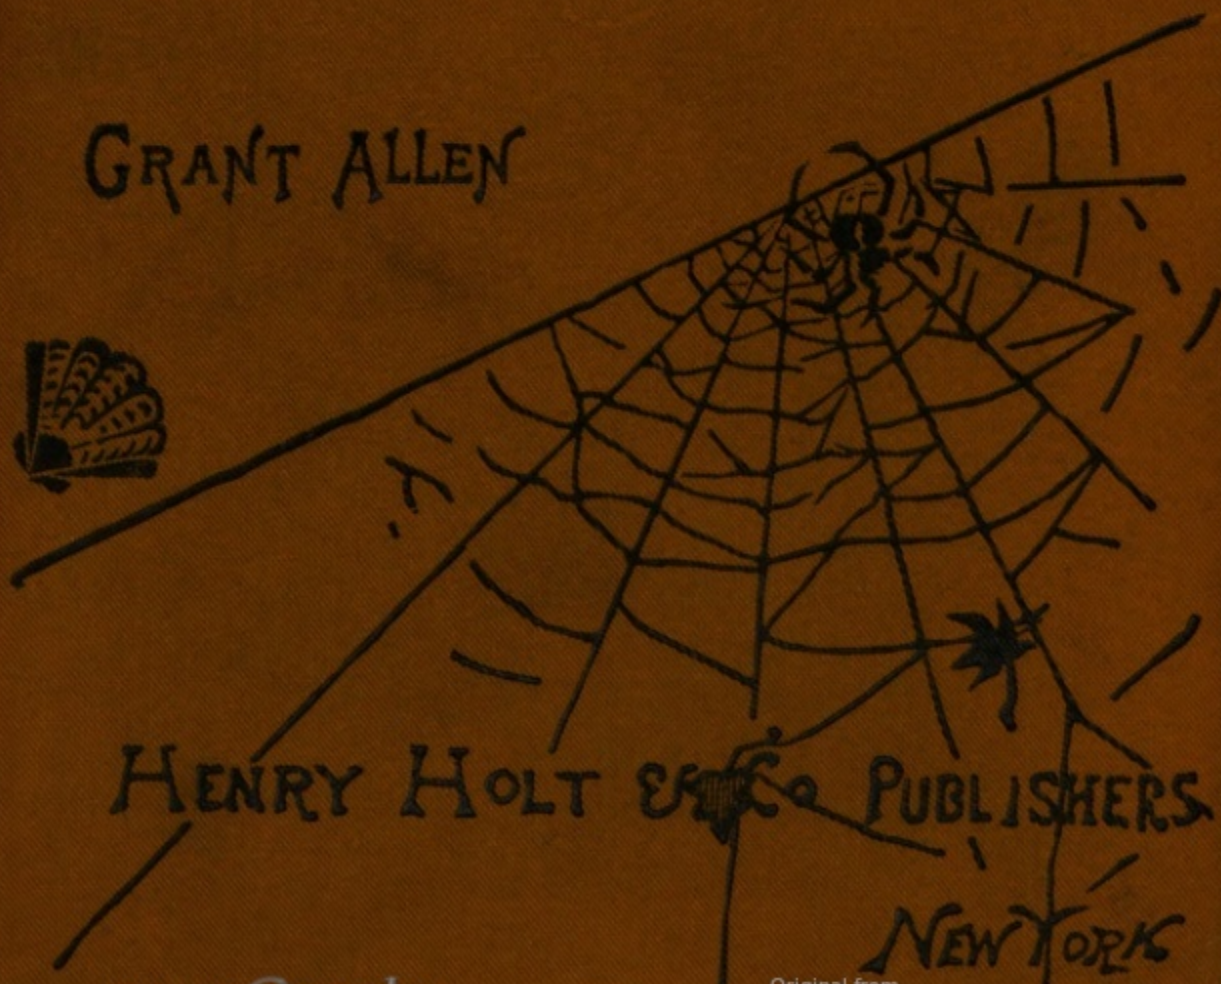
NYPL RESEARCH LIBRARIES
3 3433 07494769 2

LEISURE HOUR SERIES

RECALLED TO LIFE

GRANT ALLEN



HENRY HOLT & CO. PUBLISHERS
NEW YORK

Digitized by Google
Original from NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY

THE LEISURE HOUR SERIES

A collection of works whose character is light and entertaining, though not trivial. While they are handy for the pocket or the satchel, they are not, either in contents or appearance, unworthy of a place on the library shelves. 16mo, cloth. $1.00 per vol.

About, Edmund.

THE MAN WITH THE BROKEN EAR.
THE NOTARY'S NOSE.

Alexander, Mrs.

BLIND FATE.

Allen, Grant.

RECALLED TO LIFE.

Auerbach, Berthold.

ON THE HEIGHTS. 2 vols.
THE VILLA ON THE RHINE. 2 vols.

Beers, Prof. Henry A.

A CENTURY OF AMERICAN LITERATURE.

Caird, Mona.

A ROMANCE OF THE MOORS.

Democracy.

AN AMERICAN NOVEL.

Fothergill, Jessie.

THE FIRST VIOLIN.

Macfarlane, A. R.

THE CHILDREN OF THE EARTH.

Richardson,

CLARISSA

HENRY HOLT & [illegible] 3d St., New York.
SEPTEMBER, 1891.

Digitized by Google
Original from NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY

JEROME K. JEROME'S BOOKS.

DIARY OF A PILGRIMAGE (And Six Essays).

With upwards of 100 Illustrations by G. G. FRASER. 12mo, Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 40 cts.

"Ample quantity of fun and nonsense, but it is not extravagant. . . . Over a hundred illustrations, all clever."—Phila. Bulletin.

IDLE THOUGHTS OF AN IDLE FELLOW.

12mo, Cloth, $1.00; Paper, 35 cts.

"Characterized by a somewhat fresh and racy humor, and also by considerable pathos . . . fully equal to the modest pretensions advanced by the author."—N. Y. Tribune.

THREE MEN IN A BOAT.

(To Say Nothing of the Dog.)

Illustrations by A. FREDERICS. 12mo, Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 40 cts.

Describes the adventures and mishaps of a vacation trip on the River Thames.

"A tour de force in fun."—Saturday Review.

"Irresistibly funny."—Vanity Fair.

STAGE-LAND.

Curious Habits and Customs of its Inhabitants.

Illustrated by J. B. PARTRIDGE. 12mo, Cloth, $1.00; Paper, 30 cts.

ON THE STAGE—AND OFF.

The Brief Career of a Would-be Actor.

"Vastly amusing, but with a vaguely pathetic undertone. . . . Few readers will begin the volume without following it to the end."
—Chicago Times.

TOLD AFTER SUPPER.

Illustrations by Kenneth M. Skeapno, Cloth, $1.00; Paper, 30 cts.

"An uproarious parody of ghost stories."
—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

HENRY HOLT & CO., Publishers, 29 W. 23d St., New York.

Digitized by Google Original from NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY

WOMAN'S WORK IN AMERICA.

Edited by ANNIE NATHAN MEYER. Introduction by JULIA WARD HOWE. 12mo. $1.50.

CONTENTS: Woman in Education. (a) In the East, Mary F. Eastman. (b) In the West, May Wright Sewall. (c) In the South, Christine Ladd Franklin.—In Literature, Helen Gray Cone.—In Journalism, Susan E. Dickinson.—In Medicine, Dr. Mary Putnam Jacobi.—In Ministry, Rev. Ada C. Bowles.—In the State, Mary A. Livermore.—In Law, Ada M. Bittenbender.—In Industry, Alice Hyneman Rhine.—In Philanthropy. (a) Care of Poor, Josephine Shaw Lowell. (b) Care of Sick, Edna D. Cheney. (c) Care of Criminals, Susan Barney. (d) Care of Indians, A. B. Quinton. (e) Work of the W. C. T. U., Frances Willard. (f) Work of the Red Cross, Clara Barton. (g) Anti-Slavery Movement, Lilie B. Chace Wyman.

Bishop Potter says: "Very valuable and interesting. . . . An inspiring evidence of woman's emancipation from stupid and unjust restrictions and of the noble service to her kind which she is so richly gifted to render."

Harper's Weekly says: "A very valuable chapter in American History not elsewhere to be found. . . It is at once very interesting and very instructive."

The Christian Union says: "The story of such a movement, the aspiration and inspiration that are embodied in it, cannot fail to be a stimulus to all women. . . . Mrs. Meyer has done an excellent work."

FANNY KEMBLE'S FURTHER RECORDS.

Uniform with "RECORDS OF A GIRLHOOD," and "RECORDS OF LATER LIFE." 12mo. $2.00.

JERRY.

By SARAH BARNWELL ELLIOTT. 12mo. $1.25.

The N. Y. Herald says: "'Jerry' is a remarkable story, and full of heart. . . . Cannot be outlined; it should be read by all who like thoughtful stories, the end of which cannot be guessed from the beginning."

The N. Y. Tribune says: "All the scenes in Durden's mine are excellent. The mystery and the terror of the old workings are indicated with decided power, and the description is graphic and impressive. . . . 'Jerry' is a really fresh, vigorous, and highly interesting story."

The N. Y. World says: "This is the most distinctly original American novel that has been published in ten years. In plot, in sentiment, and character, it is redolent of the soil from which it sprung. . . . It is a book which will stand more than one reading, and that is saying much for a novel of the present day."

GREEK LITERATURE.

By THOMAS SERGEANT PERRY, author of "English Literature in the Eighteenth Century," etc. 8vo, 877 pp. Illustrated. $7.50.

The N. Y. Tribune says: "Careful, sufficiently full, and commendably clear . . . Perry has adopted the method of illustrating his text by copious citation . . . the Greek authors—in translations, of course. For the purpose of the general reader it would not be easy to find a better or more trustworthy guide and assistant than Mr. Perry. He writes of Greek literature interestingly—is never dry or pedantic. Pleases us by his sanity of judgment and his perfectly . . . sionate analysis. His readers will have before them the freshest and . . . t intelligence upon these questions."

HOLT & CO., Publishers, 29 W. 23d St., New York.

Digitized by Google
Original from NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY

THE YOUNG FOLKS' CYCLOPÆDIAS.

GAMES AND SPORTS. By JOHN D. CHAMPLIN, Jr., and ARTHUR E. BOSTWICK, 8vo, 830 pp., fully illustrated, $

A compendium of indoor and outdoor games, athletic sports, simple chemical and mechanical ments.

The Nation says: "If happi ends upon games—and they have doubtless something to do with it—t people of the present day ought to be happier than any of their predecessors. For in 'The Young Folks' Cyclopedia of Games and Sports' they can learn something about every game known to civilized life, and certainly no such collection has ever appeared before."

The Independent says: "Should form a part of every juvenile library, whether public or private."

The Boston Transcript says: "Should find a welcome in every household where there are growing children. . . . We most heartily commend it."

The N. Y. Tribune says: "A mine of joy. . . . A positive treasure to the game-loving boy and girl."

COMMON THINGS. 8vo, fully illustrated, $2.50.

PERSONS AND PLACES. 8vo, fully illustrated, $2.50.

By JOHN D. CHAMPLIN, Jr.

The New England Journal of Education says: "Every child in America should have them."

From a Report of the Connecticut Board of Education: "The 'Young Folks' Cyclopædia' should be in every juvenile library."

The Cincinnati Commercial says: "It is surprising that no one has thought of such a book before. It is simply what its name implies—a cyclopædia for children. Here he has a compendium of useful knowledge practically inexhaustible, which he can consult without help from his elders, and which will serve to introduce him to the larger works and to teach him the habit of consulting them."

Susan Coolidge says: "A book which will be of permanent value to any boy or girl to whom it may be given, and which fills a place in the juvenile library, never, so far as I know, supplied before. Clearly written and illustrated, it furnishes satisfactory answers to a great number of those interminable 'Whys' with which the minds of bright-minded children are filled, and which parents find it so difficult and wearisome to satisfy."

The N. Y. Evening Post says: "We know copies of the work to which their young owners turn instantly for information upon every theme about which they have questions to ask. More than this, we know that some of these copies are read daily as well as consulted, that their owners turn the leaves, as they might those of a fairy-book, reading intently articles of which they had not thought before seeing them, and treating the book simply as one capable of furnishing the rarest entertainment in exhaustless quantities."

YOUNG FOLKS' HISTORY OF THE WAR FOR THE UNION.

By JOHN D. CHAMPLIN, Jr. 8vo, illustrated, $2.50.

The Nation says: "It is a book that can be heartily recommended, as designed to meet a real want, and meeting it well. Indeed, the book gives a good deal more than it promises, for it is equally well adapted to general readers who are not young folks. It is, in short, a well written and entertaining history of the war of the Rebellion, very fair and impartial in tone."

The N. Y. Trib de an attractive volume, and has put in the f pact narrative, the story of the great Civil Wa taining style, calculated to hold the attention campaigns and battles, and its sketches of t the struggle, are compact, vivid, and accu

HENRY HOLT & 3d St., New Y

Digitized by Google

Original from NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY

Digitized by Google
Original from
NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY