Digitized by
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Digitized by
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Observations on a Libel called the No Protestant-Plot &c.

London.
1682.

Digitized by
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Digitized by
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

4465 450

A

J.KENDALL

LETTER

To A

FRIEND,

Containing certain

OBSERVATIONS

Upon ſome Paſſages, which have been Publiſhed

In a Late

LIBELL

Intituled, the Third Part of

NO

PROTESTANT-PLOT;

And which do Relate to the

KINGDOM

OF

IRELAND.

London Printed for Benjamin Tooke MDCLXXXII.

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

A

LETTER

To a

FRIEND

Containing certain

OBSERVATIONS

Upon some Passages, which have been Published

In a Late

LIBELL

Intituled, the Third Part of

NO

PROTESTANT-PLOT;

And which do Relate to the

KINGDOM

OF

IRELAND.

London Printed for Benjamin Tooke MDCLXXXII.

Rare Medium
DA 432 1682 .L47

Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

SIR,

I Have received the third part of No Proteſtant Plot which you were pleaſed to ſend me out of England: And I cou'd have wiſhed the two preceding parts had accompanied it, which I don't find are to be met with in this Kingdom; But I am apt to believe you did forbear the ſending of them, becauſe they might not poſſibly contain ſuch things as the other does in Relation to Ireland, and concerning which you only deſire to be ſatisfied in. And therefore I am as heartily thankful for this, as I have been honeſtly careful to inform my ſelf by the moſt Authentick papers and the moſt knowing perſons in Affairs here, with what truth the Particulars of it touching this Kingdom are related in it; For I will not pretend to meddle with its relations as to other places, both becauſe they are no part of your commands to me, and in regard I have not the ſame opportunities of coming to the knowledg of them: But this I may adventure to ſay, that if the Author did uſe no greater ſincerity in his delivery of paſſages as to the one, than he has ſhewn as to the other, he is abſolutely one of the moſt Malicious and Barefaced LIBELLERS that (even in this time of Exceſs of ſuch Creatures) has been produced: For not to detain you too long with Prefacing, but as briefly as may be to come to the matter, neither therein to follow this LIBELLER with a direct or formal Anſwer, for fear of falling into the Error againſt which Solomon thus Cautions, Anſwer not a fool in his own kind leſt thou alſo be like unto him. But only to make ſome few Animadverſions upon his LIBEL, for the detection of his Malice, and the conviction of his Falſhoods in thoſe parts of it which touch this Kingdom and the Government of it, according as you expect, and I have premiſed; I find, that althô at his firſt entrance upon Iriſh Affairs in page the 2*d*. of his LIBEL, he appears as an Abhorrer of the Bloody and Cruel Maſſacres committed by the Papiſts in the late Rebellion of Ireland, yet he onely aſſumes that ſhape in this Conjuncture of Time, the better to Insinuate himself with, and the more plausibly to Convey unto the too Credulous Populace, his designed Calumnies upon persons Concerned in the present Government of this Kingdom; who are all firm Protestants, and most of whom by their Zealous oppositions of the Popish Party during the time of that Rebellion, as every of them by their steady Administrations since, have manifested the greatest Abhorrency in the World of those Cruelties; Although they are opposite to the present FACTIOUS and Pretended Protestant Party; Which therefore thus hires and employs base and Mercenary fellows to invent and publish scandals of them.

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

And notwithstanding he wou'd in page the 16. where he makes his next step as to Ireland, seem only to inveigh against the Ingratitude of the PAPISTS for the lenities they might have received, yet in his handling thereof, he scatters malicious invectives against the Ministers here, and unjustly glances upon them, by making instances of lenity to have been extended to the PAPISTS, and of severity to have been measured to the DISSENTERS since the Kings restauration, most whereof are perfectly invented, and not any of them can this Government reasonably be charged with. Of the former sort are these his following allegations muster'd up in page the 17*th*. viz.

First, that PRIESTS and FRIERS are tolerated to swarm and openly to Celebrate Mass in Ireland. The contrary whereof is universally known in the Kingdom; Repeated Proclamations having been Issued from the Lord Lieutenant and Council for the Banishing of FRIERS, and all others of the Popish Regular and Titular Clergy out of this Dominion, and promising Rewards which have been punctually performed to such as shou'd find and seize them, which for a great while has render'd that sort of People not to be visible in these parts, and for the PRIESTS (who were permitted to stay in all times, insomuch, that not any of the ORDERS which came out of England, nor even an ADDRESS which was lately made by the House of Commons there to the King, and by his Majesty sent hither for banishing the

Digitized by Google
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

the reſt of the Popiſh Clergy, did mention them) Althô they are ſuffer'd to remain, yet are they ſo ſtrictly inhibited by Proclamations, and thoſe of them caught Offending ſo ſeverely puniſhed, that for a Conſiderable time here has not been any ſuch open Celebration of the MASS heard of amongſt us, as the LIBELLER hath falſly ſuggeſted.

Secondly, that the Introduction of the whole Popiſh Hierarchy into this Kingdom was Connived at, and a publick Aſſembly of the PAPAL Clergy allowed by a Commiſſion of the Duke of ORMONDE to be held and to ſit in 1666. The ſcandalous untruth of both which, do's upon inquiry appear very evidently, for as to that pretended Commiſſion for Aſſembling of the Papal Clergy, which I begin with, becauſe from what I ſhall ſay by way of anſwer to it, will naturally flow a confutation of that feigned connivance of the Popiſh Hierarchy: it is to be obſerved that as my Lord Duke of Ormonde, whoſe word will ſurely outweigh that of the LIBELLERS, do's utterly deny his ever having granted a Commiſſion of that kind, ſo is there no ſuch thing to be found, nor the leaſt footſtep of it to be met with in any of the Offices, through which all Commiſſions muſt paſs before they can be of any vertue, and where they are Recorded for every one to have recourſe unto; Beſides, the Ground upon which it is manifeſt the LIBELLER wou'd raiſe this ſtructure, and the ſourſe from whence it is plain he wou'd derive this Objection, when explained, and conſidered, cannot bear or Warrant any ſuch thing, for they ſtand thus, Peter Walſh (who was a ſtiff oppoſer both of the Popes Nuntio, and of the whole Rebellious party in Ireland during all the time of the Iriſh Rebellion) ſometime after the Kings Reſtauration having projected and Preſented to his Majeſty, a Remonſtrance ſigned by him and divers other Roman Catholicks of this Kingdom, and containing the higheſt expreſſions of Loyalty to his Majeſty, and the largeſt aſſurances of Fidelity to the Crown, that had ever before been tender'd by Papiſts, and which proved ſo derogatory to the Uſurpations of the Pope, that it was diſcountenanced and

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Cenſur'd at Rome, Lovain, and other Popiſh Univerſities, and oppos'd by the Popes Internuncio then reſiding at Bruxels, who did all that in him lay to dehort PAPISTS againſt it, and upon the account of all which, the ſubſcribers and adherers to it have not dar'd unto this day to adventure their perſons into any forreign parts where the Pope bears ſway. His Majeſty was very well ſatisfied with it, and upon Walſh's repairing into this Kingdom about the year 1666. for propagating ſuch the Doctrine of it (which no Loyal Proteſtant cou'd be againſt) was pleaſed to ſend his inſtructions to my Lord Duke of Ormonde His then Lord Lieutenant, for his ſuffering of Peter Walſh to meet with ſome Titular Biſhops, at that time here, to perſwade them by his Arguments, and to gain others of the Papiſts by their Examples, to ſubſcribe unto that Remonſtrance: which meeting His Grace accordingly Permitted, but onely, and ſo ſtrictly to that end propoſed, as He was both vigilant in ſeeing that thoſe Biſhops did not make uſe of it to any other purpoſe and careful in providing that they ſhou'd not take up too much time, even in the doing of that buſineſs, and therefore very early perceiving that they cou'd not come to ſuch an Agreement as might produce the effects which were expected, He Ordered them not only to diſperſe, but to quit the Kingdom, inſomuch that afterwards when His Grace was call'd from the Government, there were not above three Popiſh Biſhops remaining, two whereof were Bedrid and the third abſconded; althô when His Grace returned again to the Government (in immediate Succeſſion to my Lord of Eſſex) he found no leſs then thirteen of them to be here, and them he has cauſed to be driven out alſo, and this ſufficiently confutes the LIBELLERS allegation of His Grace conniving at the Popiſh Hierarchy being introduced, which in Engliſh is Governance, ſince He did thus expel the Governors in whom it reſided.

Thirdly, That when the PLOT was to have been executed in ENGLAND anno 1678. there were no fewer than fifteen Sheriffs in IRELAND, who were either profeſſed and avowed PA-

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

PAPISTS; or such as bred and educated their Children in that Religion; The notorious untruth whereof appears by the Original Roll of the SHERIFFS of that Year (whose Names are placed in the * Margin to abide all scrutiny if there shou'd be Occasion) not one of them there mentioned being so principl'd, or suspected to be so qualified, especially by my Lord Lieutenant, who cannot be supposed to know every Mans person, much less to look into his heart who happens to be placed in that Office, and therefore if one or two differently qualified should chance to have escaped Him through want of knowledge or Information, and throughout a whole Kingdom, His Grace might very well be excused in such a Case, as it falling out that there was not one in this, He is to be extreamly Justified. And whereas he affirms, That the Papists have promiscuously before with His Majesties Protestant Subjects been advanced to several places of power and trust, If he means publick places of power and trust, as he must if he means any thing he says, upon a strict inquiry made it cannot be found that any PAPISTS have had advancements of that kind since His Majesties Restauration, save only such of them as were made Justices of the Peace by the Lord BERKLEY's Orders in the time of his Government, and Colonel Richard Talbott made Captain of a Troop of Horse by Commission from the Earl of ESSEX when He was Chief Govetnour, so as the present Government which this reflection most Darts at appears to be the least intitled to it.

* Co. Dub. Ja. Springham Esq;
Co. Lowth Ja. Smallwood Esq;
Kings Co. John Leyster Esq;
Co. Wexford John Tench: Senior
Co. Kilkenny John Kealy Esq; dying within the time, Hen. Webb was made Sheriff the 23d of April 1678.
Co. Meath. Nath. Poole Esq;
Queens Co: William Gilbert Esq;
Co. Wicklow Christopher Usher Esq;
Co. Kildare Edward Bugget Esq;
Co: Westmeath Edward Terrill Esq;
Co: Catherlagh George Beech Esq;
Co. Longford Geo. Conyngham Esq;
Co. Cork Richard Hull Esq;
Co. Limerick John Oddell, Esq;
Co. Kerry William Ryves Esq:
Co. Waterford Tho. Christmas Esqr
Co. Clare Tho Hickman Esq:
Co. Tipperary Tho. Osborne Esq.
Co. Gallaway Char. Holcroft Esq:
Co. Leytrim Henry Crofton Esq:
Co. Sligo Roger Smith Esq:
Co. Mayo Sr. George Bingham Bar.
Co. Roscommon Ed. Gardiner Esq:
Co. Donegall Geo. Vaughan Esq:
Co. Tyrone John Moderate Esq:
Co. Fermanagh Ferdinando Davi.
Co. Antrim Edw. Harrison Esq:
Co. Armagh Godfry Walker Esq:
Co. Monaghan Rich. Johnson Esq:
Co. Down Hugh Eccles Esq:
Co. Cavan John Coyn Esq:
Co. & City of Londonderry James Morison and Char. Newtowne.

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Fourthly, That though a Proclamation was publiſhed in Ireland, for ſearching the houſes of all Roman Catholiques for Arms, yet when the SHERIFF of the County of GALWAY went in purſuance thereof to ſearch the Earl of CLANRICKARDS houſe, where as he was informed all the Papiſts in that County had lodged their Arms, the ſaid Earl produced a Warrant from my Lord LIEUTENANT the Duke of ORMONDE that his houſe ſhould not be ſearched, Which Article althô it be placed in page the 27*th* of the LIBELL yet for order ſake is ranked and taken notice of here with the others of page the 17*th* in the Libell, becauſe it is of the ſame nature, and of the like truth with them: For my Lord Duke of ORMONDE was ſo far from granting a Warrant to that Earl to hinder his houſe from being ſearched for Arms, that He never ſo much as gave him a Licence to keep any, but contrarywiſe where the Earl of ESSEX in his Government had given the ſaid Earl his Licence to keep a quantity of Arms, they were ſince by my Lord Duke of ORMOND'S Orders taken from him, and delivered into the publick ſtores.

Laſtly, he alleadges, That yet while all this forbearance and tenderneſs have been expreſſed to the PAPISTS, the DISSENTERS have fallen under the misfortune of having an expreſs Law made againſt them, and divers of them have been proſecuted to Fine and Impriſonment upon it. Wherein the LIBELLER ſhews his Ignorance as well as his Malice, for although the Statute of 2d. Eliz. for the Uniformity of Common-Prayer in this Kingdom (Which is without doubt againſt the PAPISTS, and who are frequently proſecuted upon it) ſhould by conſtruction be extended unto the DISSENTERS, (as I never heard it to be ſo Adjudged in the Caſe of any of them, ſo far are They from having been Proſecuted notwithſtanding their openly numerous and frequent Meetings) yet was there never any Particular expreſs Law made againſt Them either before, or as the LIBELLER wou'd have it believed, ſince the KINGS Reſtauration, And as that too mo-moderate Act of 2*d. Elizab.* be all that is in Force against the PAPISTS, or that can be supposed to be against the DISSENTERS, so it is to be wished that for the quiet of the Kingdom, more and severer Laws were made against both. And this brings me to the latter part of my Assertion, that as most of the LIBELLERS instances of the Lenity shewn the PAPISTS and of the severity extended to the DISSENTERS in this Kingdom, since the KINGS restauration are invented, which I hope I have fully proved to you, so that none of them can be reasonably charged upon the present Government, which I think, I shall be able very easily and briefly to shew you, For all the LIBELLER observes with semblance of truth, and which looks like an Objection in that point as to this GOVERNMENT against which he levels it, is, that there hath not any Laws been made against the PAPISTS in Ireland since the Kings return, save one against their living in Wall'd Towns.

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

But if the method of enacting Laws in Ireland be thought upon, how that by Poynings Act the Chief Governour cannot call a Parliament, for the making of Laws in that Kingdom, before he prays the King and Councils leave for it, and transmits some Bills for their Approbation to be passed in it, and untill he receives those Bills back again with Licence for the calling of a Parliament, and if it be Consider'd that my LORD LIEUTENANT the Duke of ORMOND since his being here, hath REPEATEDLY prayed such Licence, and Transmitted Bills, whereof some were as effectual against the PAPISTS (although there were none among them against other DISSENTERS) as cou'd be devised, and that he and the Kingdom were disappointed therein, by the oppositions of some Persons who are mightily extoll'd by the LIBELLER, that objection of there being no more Laws against the PAPISTS cannot in the least affect this Government, especially in the person of the Duke of ORMOND, neither can his Grace be thought to be concerned in the letter of suspension of, or dispensation with the Law against PAPISTS living in wall'd Towns, which the LIBELLER men-mentions; that being procured and executed when the Lord BERKLY was Governour, no more than he is to be responsible if the Orders for the taking off that suspension which the LIBELLER passes over with silence, and which were grounded upon the Address of the House of Commons in England, were not as effectually, as they shou'd be put in execution here, they happening to come Over hither in the time of the Earl of Essex's Government.

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

After the LIBELLER has thus, as in a false Artificial Glass, which is able to make the best faces look deformed, misrepresented our GOVERNOUR and others co-operating with him for the KINGS service in the Government, and as he fancies has by his traducements of them rendred the worst of things, which he the worst of Men can feign to be believed concerning them: he proceeds to page the 40*th*, and from having before endeavoured to asperse them as if they shou'd by his fictitious indulgences to the PAPISTS incourage them in the old POPISH PLOT; He there advances and in effect charges them with being ABETTORS with them in the new fangled PROTESTANT PLOT; But the persons he names for support of this Charge are some of them, so ridiculously Idle, and others of them so notoriously wicked, and the instances he brings for proof of it, are all of them so manifestly false, that if the LIBELLER were not possest with a singular spirit of folly as well as of lying, he wou'd never have mention'd them, for as to SMITH who I find to be the first of the persons named, he is such an abject wretch, and so great a malefactor, and even in the Goal, where he has most deservedly layn for a great while, and still lies, do's daily appear so vicious a thing, that he had been only fit for the Laws to take notice of, were it not for the nature of the Information he gave in, which Authority wou'd not pass over without examining, for be it known unto the LIBELLER and to all such whose turn he wou'd serve, and under whose pay he writes, that those in GOVERNMENT here, are as apprehensive of Dangers as they can

Digitized by Google
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

can be; Though not as inventive of them as they, for this only reaſon, are, becauſe not in GOVERNMENT there; Therefore of the great ſholes of Informations brought in here, ſince the firſt diſcovery of the Plot, and which tended to the proof of it, not one was ever rejected, althô coming from the vileſt of Men. And therefore when that of SMITH againſt the Prieſt St. LAWRANCE proffer'd it ſelf at DUBLIN, it was immediately received and ſolemnly proceeded upon, the Lord PRIMATE who was then the firſt of the Council on the place, by the Lord LIEUTENANTS happening at that time to be in the Country, having conven'd ſuch COUNCELLORS as were in the Town, and with them having given all neceſſary Orders in that affair, which produced the immediate apprehenſion of St. Lawrence, together with the ſeiſure of his papers, and the Commitment of his Perſon, and SMITH had all the Encouragement fit to be given him in this his Diſcovery, inſomuch thar if any perſons, were found, reflecting upon his Evidence, they were reprimanded by the Magiſtracy for it, But this did not anſwer his end, in what he deſigned and expected by making ſuch diſcovery, being no leſs than that he ſhou'd forwith be permitted to go out of priſon upon the foot of it, Which there was no reaſon in the earth yet to allow him, until he had to ſatisfaction either proved his accuſation of St. LAWRANCE upon his Tryal, or diſproved others accuſations of himſelf, and for which he was impriſon'd, upon his own Tryal; And therefore, he did betake himſelf unto another courſe, and to walk in the ſteps of ſome of his predeceſſors the IRISH evidences, who obtained their releaſments out of priſon in this Kingdom where they found they were too much known, by getting themſelves to be ſent for as Witneſſes into ENGLAND where they were too little known; For which purpoſe, according to the Mode of the times we are fallen into, he Prepares a NARRATIVE with a letter to incloſe it in, unto a BUSIE Perſon at LONDON in ſuch matters, and by the aſſiſtance of, together with recomendatory letters from a half witted fellow and wretched RIMER of this Town; gets them tranſmitted to him, who upon his receiving of them, and according to his accuſtomed manner of

run-

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

running headlong without weighing matters, or if he chance to do it, making the ſcales to light on that ſide which contains leaſt truth, and is likelieſt to make the greateſt ſtir, conducts them with all ſpeed and buſle to WHITEHAL, and in hopes of having this freſh INFORMER or rather new Engine ſent for over to work with, lodges them with Mr. Secretary JENKINS for the Information of the KING and COUNCIL, having moſt dutifully and mannerly taken eſpecial care before to Print and publiſh them for the Amuſement of the world, but His MAJESTY and the Lords knowing this Conductor and his drift, too well, and experiencing ſuch kind of Artifices as this Informer uſed, too much, wou'd not be ſo paſſed upon by them, and yet at the ſame time were pleaſed ſo far to take notice of thoſe Papers, as to ſend them over hither with Orders to proceed upon them according to Law here, where the matter of them were properly Cognizable, and where preparations were made for St. Lawrence his being ſtrictly proſecuted upon them, The KINGS Counſel having by order and with great circumſpection formed a firm Indictment for miſdemeanor (which was all that in their Opinions the matter could bear) to be preferred againſt him, and the Judges having carefully provided that no PAPIST nor any ſuſpected to be POPISHLY affected ſhou'd paſs upon the Tryal of him, which came on the laſt Michaelmas Term in the Kings Bench, Where a Jury all conſiſting of the ſtricteſt Proteſtants and ableſt Citizens of the City of Dublin did appear, where SMITH had the greateſt liberty and latitude afforded to him, and which he made uſe of in the proffering and management of his evidence, that any Court did ever give or Witneſs take, and where St. LAWRENCE (whoſe perſon I know not, and whoſe profeſſion I abominate, and therefore, you may be ſure I ſpeak impartially what was obſerved univerſally) had nothing beyond meer Juſtice extended to him, and as a part thereof was that of Allowance of Counſel to plead for him, (which the LIBELLER with more Malice than Law makes his Obſervation upon) to be reckon'd, ſince he ſtanding indicted for miſdemeanor only, no Judicature cou'd have refuſed

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

ſed it to him Juſtly, ſo as all things ſeemed to concur, if not to have been calculated for St. LAWRENCES Condemnation, except SMITH himſelf, who by variety of villanies proved upon him in other Caſes, which he cou'd not deny, and by many and palpable incoherences and contradictions that fell from him in this Caſe, which were not to be reconcil'd, did wholly prevent it, for they were the reaſons that particularly ſwayed with the Jury to acquit St. LAWRENCE by their verdicts, and generally made all others who heard them, to do the like in their Judgments, and theſe were the motives, which made the Gentlemen of the long Robe (as they have declared) to forbear, becauſe they were aſhamed to appear on the behalf of ſuch a blur'd and ſtellionated Creature, and none of thoſe wild inſtances which the LIBELLER invents and mentions only to debaſe them, and to reflect upon Authority, and which it is to be obſerved he at once inſinuates to be believed by others, and yet expreſly ſays, he will not ſo much as conjecture them himſelf: ſo as he needed not in the Concluſion of this his fable of SMITH, have any more told us that he was no diviner, than I need tell you after all this that he is an idle Dreamer.

The next man our LIBELLER produces is JAMES MORLEY, whom he Stiles Captain MORLEY, though I know not for what reaſon, unleſs it be becauſe of his appearing at the head of the band of IRISH WITNESSES, which ſometime ſince Marched to LONDON, and of his drawing them up with what he would have them ſwear unto for him, but however true he may be in giving of that Title to him, I am ſure he is moſt falſe in thoſe things he relates of and poſſibly from him, and becauſe the LIBELLER will not be long before he makes my words good (though neither I nor all the World will ever be able to make his ſo) he no ſooner mentions the name of MORLEY, but as if it were a ſpell to raiſe a lye with, he falls plum into the telling of one concerning him, by introducing and expreſſing of him to have appeared and Sworn before the Committee of LORDS and COMMONS in England, two Conſults which the

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Papiſts had in Ireland in reference to the extirpating the Proteſtant Religion in that Kingdom, whereas it appears by MORLEY'S Examination taken either before a Committee of the LORDS, or of the COMMONS, or both, that he did not ſwear to thoſe Conſults, but only to a hearſay touching them; which he ſaid he had from HUBBERT TIRRELL and Henry ô Neal, who it is to be obſerved, were two Beggars, and ſuch miſcreants that an honeſt and a diſcerning PROTESTANT who knew them as well as MORLEY did, wou'd hardly have adventur'd to repeat any thing after them, much leſs to conduct what they ſhou'd ſay, unto publick aſſemblies, and in prejudice of any who was a PROTESTANT alſo, eſpecially Conſidering that as it is well known MORLEY had ſuch experience of their villanies, as before that time, he did reject their proferr'd Oaths to him in ſome Trial which he had in this Kingdom, however afterwards he became ſo reconcil'd to them, as in the laſt PARLIAMENT at Weſtminſter to make uſe of their names for injuriouſly accuſing of Sir JOHN DAVIS, a perſon who with all his Relations, have ever been eminent profeſſors of the PROTESTANT Religion, and for that reaſon known to be obnoxious to the POPISH Party, and it is beſides to be remarked that Tirrell has lately and ſolemnly diſavowed his ever having known of any ſuch Conſults, and declared that what he had informed concerning them was a meer fiction, which as TYRRELL alledges MORLEY prompted and hired him to make, and to get others to ſwear unto for carrying on ſome deſigns of his own, and what is yet more remarkable ô NEAL (who has lately hang'd for a Robbery in this KINGDOM) did juſt before he was thrown off the Ladder, Confeſs himſelf to be perjur'd, both in what he deliver'd as to thoſe CONSULTS, and in what he had ſworn againſt Sir JOHN DAVIS, and that he was by MORLEYS deſire led into the latter perjury, which Confeſſion coming from one in the inſtant he was going to the dead, muſt be convincing with all but ſuch who will not be perſwaded tho one roſe from the dead; After the LIBELLER has thus begun and diſpach'd this

Digitized by Google
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

this untruth of MORLEY, who has no reason to con him thanks for it, since it has provoked and produced the representation of these truths concerning him, he growes upon his own hands, and to shew his proficiency in the lying-trade, he proceeds to the delivery of a grosser falcity, in asserting, that six or seven witnesses have been procured to depose in this Kingdom, that MORLEY was suborned by the Earls of ESSEX and SHAFTSBURY, and by Sir ROBERT CLAYTON, to swear treason against the Duke of ORMONDE the Lord CHANCELLOR BOYLE and Sir JOHN DAVIS, whereas upon search in the Offices where things of that nature (if any had been,) wou'd be lodg'd, and upon inquiry from the Officers who cou'd not but know of them if they were there, it cannot be found that ever any one such deposition was taken, or so much as as heard of, but several Examinations (and with probability of truth too considering the before mentioned proceeding of MORLEY) do appear of his Contrivances of that kind with people of infinite lower ranks, and it is to be hoped of infinite different principles too, than it can be thought the Earls of ESSEX and SHAFTSBURY and Sir Robet CLAYTON are of, who the Lord Duke of ORMONDE and those named with him do not suppose wou'd Imbarque themselves with such a sort of man as MORLEY is, and in such manner of Designs as he was upon, so as the setting up of these imaginary depositions, which never had being but in this LIBELLER's idle brain, and in his Idler LIBELL, must have been a piece of MORLEY's magick, by such Incantations to charm those persons of Quality to stand by him in this time of his deservedly Expiring Credit, and to raise their Spirits (thô most Undeservedly) against others whom his and the LIBELLERS malice would point them unto, and whom (though it be impossible to find them out by the mark the LIBELLER puts upon them,) of having obtain'd those depositions, because there were never any such, yet by all this Lurry about Morley, I guess them to be certain persons of such uprightness and integrity as I am certain, they will not fear to have their Actions plac'd

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

c'd in that approaching light of a PARLIAMENT with which the LIBELLER threatens them, and which then ſhines brighteſt when MORLEY and the LIBELLER, and ſuch other ſons of darkneſs are ſcatter'd from before it, and thanks be to God, we have no reaſon to deſpair of a bleſſing of that kind to attend that time, for the weather ſeems to clear very much, and the aire to be ſo well upon Purifying, that thoſe infections cannot remain. And as the LIBELLER has thus ingennouſly in this Paragraph repreſented things that never were, ſo he will not leave it off untill he has as ingennouſly miſrepreſented Matters otherwiſe than they were, according to the ſaying of Fame, the true Parent of this lying Monſter, that pariter facta atque infecta canebat; thus purpoſely to reflect upon perſons concerned in this Government (which the ſcope of his whole diſcourſe as to Ireland drives at) he wou'd from the receiving an Information which was given in here againſt MORLEY, for ſuch treaſonable expreſſions as are not fit to be repeated, but in a Judicial way of proceeding againſt him, and from the tranſmiſſion which was made of it to the KING and COUNCIL in ENGLAND, infer a fondneſs, & I do not know what, to have been in them of it, whereas they did but as they were bound, in taking a matter of that dangerous import when it was offer'd, and as they wou'd have done, if it had related to any one elſe beſides MORLEY, and only obſerved their duty and the Cuſtome of their Predeceſſors in tranſmitting (as they alwaies did) things of ſuch a tranſcendent nature, let them concern whomſoever they wou'd, And why this ordinary practis'd method in all other Caſes, ſhou'd be thus extraordinarily handled and repreſented in MORLEY's by the LIBELLER, is what I cannot think of any other reaſon to be given for, but this, that he is a LIBELLER; Beſides, ſuppoſe it were true, as the LIBELLER ſays, (and it is the only thing he ſays of affairs in IRELAND which ſuppoſition it ſelf can help) That at the time of this tranſmiſſion as to MORLEY it was withal deſir'd he ſhou'd be ſent over hither to be Tried, where his Crime was ſuppoſed to be done. (althô really no ſuch thing was

Digitized by Google
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

was desired) and that the KING had granted it, which He neither did, nor denyed, because no application was made for it, do's the LIBELLER believe himself? or can he imagin any one else will believe him in, but laugh at him for, this his doctrine thereupon, That it were illegal and Arbitrary to send a Malefactor to be Tryed here for a fact committed by him here; For surely that is as legal and looks something more reasonable than to send for persons from hence to be Tryed in England for things they are only charged to have Committed here, as we see has of late been practised, and which thô the Lawyers say may be done in this Case, I am sure no Lawyer will ever allow what the LIBELLER says in the other Case, especially, if no pertinenter a reason be given than this, which he assigns for it, because the party was born and bred and has an Estate in ENGLAND, For such Circumstances alone, can never protect any one in ENGLAND, or IRELAND, from answering for his breach of the Laws in either KINGDOM, and in that KINGDOM too, where he so broke them if the KING please to have him sent thither. Nay in this Case of MORLEY, if the matter charged upon him to be Committed here (from which I shall not with the LIBELLER acquit him only because he is a PROTESTANT, considering what kind of one he shewed himself in the times of usurpation, thorough-pacedly serving of them, and what sort of one he manifests himself in the present time of faction, by those baser Offices of subornation and Perjury ministring to it,) were any felony under Treason, I speak it with reverence, it were unjust not to send him hither to be tryed, because the Statute of Hen. the 8th for Tryal of forreign matters in England, extends expresly and only to Treasons, so that lesser Offences done here cannot be tryed there, and consequently, to have kept him in such Case on the other side from appearing here, wou'd be to hinder a malefactor from being brought to Justice, which were not Just; But as MORLEYS Case is, being for Treason Committed here, which by that Statute may be Tryed there, the KING can Justly enough (if He Pleases) detain him to be Tryed in ENGLAND, or

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

or (if he thinks fit) as Juſtly too may ſend him hither for Tryal, for by that Statute it is in the KINGS Choiſe, in which of the KINGDOMS ſuch a Caſe ſhall be Try'd; But then if the Tryal be ordered to be there upon a Treaſon Committed here, the Judges in ENGLAND are therein to Govern themſelves according to the Laws of Ireland, that is, they are not to adjudge any thing to be Treaſon, but what is ſo by the Law of IRELAND, or by ſome Act of PARLIAMENT in ENGLAND where IRELAND is named, or that is Enacted in IRELAND; and this Rule holds concerning Pleas in diſcharge of Treaſon alſo, wherefore though MORLEY'S charge conſiſts of Treaſonable words only, and they really were ſpoken two years ago as the LIBELLER obſerves, whereby he was to be diſcharged by the late Statute in ENGLAND (if they were alledg'd there) yet being laid to be ſpoken here, where that Statute not naming IRELAND, nor being Enacted in IRELAND do's not extend, he cannot reap any Benefit by it; From all which though I will not take upon me to conjecture, what were the Cauſes MORLEY was not ſent hither, yet I may rationally conclude, that they cou'd not be any of thoſe which are given by the LIBELLER for it, ſo as he proves to be as groſly out in his Matters of Law as he is notoriouſly miſtaken in his matters of fact; And where, for Concluſion of this his Paragraph, and for the bringing off Morley by it, he ſays, it is remarkable that what MORLEY did declare, (I ſuppoſe he intends to the PARLIAMENT) in relation to the Duke of ORMONDE the Lord CHANCELLOR, and Sir John Davis, he refer'd himſelf for, the truth of it to the Council Books or to depoſitions before the Council of this Kingdom; it is more remarkable that MORLEY did declare nothing there (whatſoever he has done elſewhere) as to any of thoſe Perſons, ſave only Sir JOHN DAVIS, and as to him that he refer'd nothing to the COUNCIL BOOKS, or to depoſitions before the COUNCIL to prove, other than a pretended Copy he produced of the ſaid ô Neal or TYRRELLS Examination, but of which there never was any Original in

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

in the Council books or at the Council Board, or indeed in being, ſo as the LIBELLER by his thus elaborately attempting to preſerve MORLEYS gaſping reputation, for ſupport of his Scandalous reflections upon the Government, does but deſtroy his own Credit, and confound his own Devices.

There are two other perſons, whom the LIBELLER brings by head and ſhoulders into this Paragraph for evidence of what he aims at by it, but he giving only ſurnames to them as HANLON, and MURPHY, whereby it is Impoſſible without more certainty, out of the herds that are of thoſe names, to gather whom he means, and not aſſigning any particulars to have come from them, in proof of his General aſſertion which he Cites them for, by means whereof he only ſets up Shadows to be conteſted within them; I will therefore paſs them over and come to that more ſolid body in the LIBELLERS ſingle opinion of Mr. HAWKINS, whom he ſhews as his next and laſt man, but who performed ſuch a part when he firſt brought himſelf upon the ſtage, as I cannot tell whether folly, or ſomething that is worſe were his greateſt Vice, and therefore I will determin on neither ſide, but give a true account of it, as it has been collected out of the Original papers of that matter, and then let any ſober and impartial man make his Judgment of it, and of him upon it, which was thus; Mr. HAWKINS (between whom and ſome of the mac GENNISES his neighbours there were ſome differences) came to my Lord LIEUTENANT to the CASTLE, having made his way as being a ſtranger by preſenting of a letter from Sir HANS HAMILTON a late member of the Council unto his GRACE, & there acquainted his Grace that one Daniel Harvy came to him to his houſe in the Country, and told him of a meeting which he had a little before with one Con mac Gennis at Down-Patrick, and that among other things which at that meeting paſſed betwixt them, mac GENNIS engaged him to joyn with him in ſwearing HIS GRACE, Mr. HAWKINS and others into the Plot, and at the ſame time did give him a little money, and promiſed him a great deal more when they ſhou'd afterwards

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

meet, as they then agreed to do at Dublin, where the design was to be carried on betwixt them, That with this Information Mr. HAWKINS repaired to Sir HANS HAMILTON, who adviſed him to carry it to my LORD LIEUTENANT where he thus brought it, hereupon my Lord LIEUTENANT cauſed Mr. HAWKINS to bring HANVY to him, and after his GRACE had with great privacy taken his Examination, which was much to the purpoſe aforeſaid, he asked Mr. HAWKINS if he knew CON mac GENNIS, and where he was to be found, which he ſaid he did very well, and that as HANVY told him, he was come to Town in order to their aforeſaid appointed meeting, which was to be ſometime on that or the day following, and though Mr. HAWKINS did not know the certain houſe where it ſhou'd be in, yet he would learn it from HANVY, and thereupon he propoſed to his GRACE that for having more Witneſſes beſides HANVY of what ſhou'd paſs at that intended meeting, his GRACE wou'd appoint another Truſty perſon to joyn with one NEAL mac LAUGHKIN whom Mr. HAWKINS deſigned to employ, for ſo diſpoſing of themſelves in the Room of the Houſe where the others were to meet in, that they might (without being obſerved by them) ſee them, and hear the diſcourſes betwixt them; Which my LORD LIEUTENANT complied with, and was accordingly done, only with this Variation, that Mr. HAWKINS employed another in that ſervice in the ſtead of mac LAUGHLIN, who cou'd not be found, In the mean time his GRACE kept this matter as a ſecret from all perſons, leaſt any diſapppointment ſhou'd befall ſuch a promiſed diſcovery, afterwards Mr. HAWKINS came to my LORD LIEUTENANT, and acquainted him the parties had met, and the perſon appointed by his GRACE, with the other whom Hawkins did employ in the Over hearing of them, came likewiſe, & told his Grace that they ſaw HANVY & another man whom he call'd CON mac GENNIS together, and heard them diſcourſe of ſuch deſigns as were at firſt informed, but withal that they obſerved and heard mac GENNIS to ſay at their parting to the

Ma-

Master of the house, who came towards the end of their discourse to them These words, take notice I never saw this person pointing at HANVY before the last night, upon this Report brought to my Lord LIEUTENANT He ordered CON mac GENNIS to be sent for, who appeared and denied his name to be CON mac GENNIS, affirming it to be OWEN DUFFY, and proved it to be so by invincible Circumstances; but he owned at the same time his having gone under the name of CON mac GENNIS too, and his having had the aforesaid meeting with HANVY, whom withal he protested he never saw until the night before he had the meeting with him, which with his other feigned parts, he said he was prevailed upon to Act, by the desires of one HENRY FARREL, whose reason for the same he knew not, but referr'd it to FARREL to declare: At his proceeding my Lord LIEUTENANT (as any one wou'd be) was strangly surprised, and the more, because his GRACE was satisfied at his first sight of the Man, who now is DUFFY, and before he named himself to be so, that he was not CON mac GENNIS whom HANVY had described, for him His GRACE had occasions to see and know long before, in the quality of a Deputy Pursuvant for dispatching of Irish Witnesses, sent for from hence into ENGLAND, but what HIS GRACE most wonder'd at was, that HANVY shou'd have affirmed as he did, his having had a familiar acquaintance for many years together with that CON mac GENNIS before, and yet that he shou'd now take this DUFFY for him; Hereupon my Lord LIEUTENANT had HAWKINS and HANVY who were attending, called in, where HANVY upon the question put to him, declared again such his long acquaintance with CON mac GENNIS, and all the other matters touching him, and confidently affirmed, that DUFFY then present before him was the Man, and Mr. HAWKINS (although at his first coming to my Lord LIEUTENANT, and as is before mentioned, he told His GRACE that he knew CON mac GENNIS very well, and consequently, cou'd not but at this time know that DUFFY whom he saw thus to personate him was another

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

ther perſon) yet as if he wou'd have had my Lord Lieutenant deceived, did ſuffer Duffy to paſs upon His GRACE for Con mac GENNIS, without offering any thing to undeceive him, until my Lord LIEUTENANT did at laſt take notice to them, how that perſon had proved himſelf to be OWEN DUFFY, and how his Grace himſelf knew that it was not CON mac GENNIS, upon which HANVY and HAWKINS confeſſed themſelves to be miſtaken, and ſo in great confuſion vaniſhed; After this ſcene was thus over, which in the perſons and the parts of it looked the moſt odd, and was the leaſt intelligible, that for a great while has been preſented, my Lord LIEUTENANT conducted the whole matter to the Council, where it ſeemed as a perfect riddle, and becauſe FARRELL appeared the ableſt to unfold it, by giving an account how he came to make DUFFY perſonate CON mac GENNIS unto HANVY, he was order'd to be examined, who in his Examination and upon his Oath declared, that NEAL mac LAUGHLIN did ſome time before, lodging at his houſe, let fall expreſſions which gave him ſuſpicion of HAWKINS his being upon ſome evil deſigns, and that he was confirmed therein afterwards, by lighting upon a letter from HAWKINS to mac LAUGHLIN which FARRELL produced, and HAWKINS confeſſed, but pretends to be an innocent end, and which directed mac LAUGHLIN to go to one RAWLINSON in Dublin for the furniſhing him with money, enjoyning him afterwards to repair to HAWKINS into the North concerning the buſineſs which mac LAUGHLIN was to do for him; That after mac LAUGHLIN (who then went to the North accordingly) returned unto Town, he came to Farrells houſe, but told him that he was to lodge no longer with him, for that he had a lodging provided in another place hard by the ſaid RAWLINSON; which with FARRELLS obſerving of mac LAUGHLIN to be flush of money, and underſtanding that HAWKINS was come to Town, put it out of all doubt with him that there was ſome miſchief a contriving, which Farrell reſolved to imploy himſelf in the finding out, and for that purpoſe remembring that

mac

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

mac LAUGHLIN had been very inquisitive of him for CON mac GENNIS, and perceiving several messengers to come to his house at divers times in a day to enquire for CON mac GENNIS, as from persons newly come out of the Country, He dogg'd some of Them to a certain House whither he prevailed with OWEN DUFFY to go with him, and if there shou'd be Occasion to take upon him the name of CON mac GENNIS, after whom this great inquiry had been, and when they came thither and a little after they had talked something loud, on purpose to be heard by an obscure man who they were told was in the next Room, that man (who proved to be DANIEL HANVY) hearing the name of CON mac GENNIS, came in unto them, and applying himself to DUFFY, whom he took or pretended to take for CON mac GENNIS, finding him to be called so, said to him with much kindness, you know we have great business to do, to which DUFFY answered, yes, yes, and so after having appointed to meet together the next day, they then parted, which was the only occasion, as FARREL said, of his thus perswading DUFFY to personate CON mac GENNIS unto Hanvy, and of such meetiug and discourse had betwixt them, and now let any one who reads these true passages of that affair Judge, whether Mr. HAWKINS has acquitted himself like that man of honor, discretion, and ingenuity, which the LIBELLER wou'd blazon him; and whether my Lord DUKE of ORMONDE be not a more merciful person to the DISSENTERS, than the LIBELLER wou'd seem before to represent him, since notwithstanding Mr. HAWKINS be one of the virulenst of them, and by such his proceedings appeared a very great Trifler with, if not an Affronter of GOVERNMENT, yet his GRACE let him go without inflicting any Punishment upon him for it, althô he cou'd not but take more notice of him afterwards, when an Information amounting as near to HIGH TREASON as cou'd be was given into the Council against him, and by such a Person too as Mr. Florence Weyer a Sanctified evidence in ENGLAND

and

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

and who was one of the Chiefest of those Witnesses upon whose Testimonies the Titular Primate PLUNKET was found guilty in the Kings Bench there, for which reason the LIBELLER never so much as mentions WETER here, but only takes notice of mac GENNIS and mac LAUGHLIN who swore latter in time, and much inferior in matter against HAWKINS than the other did, and as to mac LAUGHLIN it is observable that though the LIBELLER affirms he never spoke with HAWKINS but once, and then only to insinuate into his acquaintance, yet HAWKINS himself in his Examination owns to have known him and to have Employed him in his busines for some years past; And besides it is manifest by HAWKINS his above mentioned Letter to Mac LAUGHLIN (which FARRELL produced upon his being Examined, and HAWKINS Confessed in his Examination to be his hand) that there was a familiar acquaintance betwixt him and Mac LAWGHLIN before, which Letter, looking so suspicious, and being followed with WETERS and the others Informations, which sounded so dangerous, my Lord LIEUTENANT and COUNCIL cou'd do no less than as they did, to Commit HAWKINS upon them, and notwithstanding the LIBELLER and his Party wou'd now, because it seems to thwart their designs, reflect upon the Government for doing of it, as too much countenancing of Informations, yet (as has been found by late experience,) they wou'd be apt at another time (if it might advance their purposes) more severely to fall upon the GOVERNMENT for not doing of it, as too great discountenancing of Evidence, so partial and so passionate are the FACTIOUS.

Thus, (Sir,) have I run through the several Parts of this LIBELL, which touch upon this Kingdom, and the Government of it, and in my answers to them, I have for the most part mentioned and referr'd unto such papers of Estate & publick Records, and besides, all the matters of them prove to fall within the knowledges of so many persons living, that if I had not a singular regard to truth (which I hope I shall ever follow) and a particular respect

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

ſpect for you (whom I am certain I will never abuſe) yet you may be ſure I wou'd not dare and therefore that I have not adventur'd to ſay any thing, but what contains the greateſt veracity, ſince in doing otherwiſe (which was a ſufficient Precaution to me from the beginning unto the end of this work) I knew I ſhou'd be by variety of Teſtimonies diſproved, and render'd not only as Odious, but as Ridiculous and Contemptible to the World, as our LIBELLER has ſhewn himſelf, who though he won'd have it believed, as if he were in his principles the fartheſt removed from the Papiſh Party, do's yet expoſe his LIBELL (by the groſs lies which are diſperſed through it) to be the neareſt allied unto the Popiſh Legend. I am with Eſteem and reſpect, Dublin the 1*ſt*. of April 1682.

Sir

Your moſt affectionate and moſt humble Servant.

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Form 77

Kings Book

Wou[illegible] Pirates Loss by a relation of the Barbarous Blood

Massacre about Sea Re

Thousand Robberies begun

at Sea & Carried on over all 145647

Digitized by
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Original from
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

3333607

Digitized by
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Digitized by
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Digitized by
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME