Digitized by
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

A MOST TRVE RELATION OF A Wonderfull Victory it pleased GOD

To give those two Worthy Commanders

Sir ROBERT and Sir WILLIAM STUART.

Against the Rebells, being under command of Sir Philem O Neale, Wherein 2000 of his men were slain, and but 6 or 7 of our Scottish Souldiers.

Likewise many more of the Rebells slaine, and the Castell of Knosklinsh taken by the Scots.

Presented by a worthy Gentleman to the Parliament; and by them commanded to be Printed.

Henry Elsyng Cler. Parl.

LONDON.

Printed by R. Oulton. and G. Dexter for IOSEPH HUNSCOTT, July 7. An. D. 1642.

Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Digitized by UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Rare
Medium
DA
943
.M67
1642

A MOST TRVE RELATION OF A VVonderfull Victory it pleased GOD

To give those two Worthy Commanders

Sir ROBERT
and
Sir WILLIAM } STUART.

Against the Rebells, being under command of Sir Philem O Neale, Wherein 2000 of his men were slain, and but 6 or 7 of our Scottish Souldiers.

Likewise many more of the Rebells Slaine, and the Castle of Kupskinnah taken by the Scots.

Prefented by a worthy Gentleman to the Parliament; and by them commanded to be Printed.

Henry Elsyng Cler. Parl.

Printed by R. Oulton. and G. Dexter for IOSEPH HUNSCOTT, July 7.
An. D. 1642.

Digitized by
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

FROM

DUBLIN,

June, 16. 1642.

WE had a Messenger came from the Army with newes of the taking of Knocklinch Castle, 18. miles from Dublin, which was a very strong Castle, in which Mr. Plunket was chiefe Commander of the rest that were within, who stood out to the last, but when they saw our men so violent, not fearing to come upon the walls of the Castle, then all the VVomen cryed for Quarter, which was granted them, but the men fired the stayres and roomes about their own eares, so our men at last went in, and put all to the sword, but the women were saved, except 7. that would not have Quarter, wee had 20. men lost, Lieutenant Colonell Kirke shot in his back, who will hardly escape it, Fifty of the enemie killed, and some Commanders taken upon the taking of that Castle, Lord Traymilestowne Castle, one of the Lords of the Pale, who are Rebells, was left by those that kept it.

June 17. The Earle of Castlehaven, Sir Nicholas White, and his two sonnes, and Sir Andrew Aylmer

Justices or there Collonel as they had done, both robbed and Pillaged, cut grasse, green Corne, and spoyled all that Corne neere them, but now if they doe so, they are to be executed by Mertiall Law, the provest Martiall of the City hath a Strait command to looke to the businesse and to execute the offenders.

Iune 28. From Knocfargus, Manroe hath made another expedition towards the Newry, but none of the Rebells staid. But Sir Robert Stuart and Sir William Stuart hath given Sir Phelim's Oneale a great defeate, and hath certainly killed neer two Thousand hard by Raphoe, which the losse onely of 6 or 7 men the manner of it was thus: Sir Phelim Oneale came with ten Thousand Men of purpose to be revenged on Sir Robert Stuart for severall affronts before that time done him, but before he came to the ford of Fin two English Men Prisoners with Sir Phelim escaped and advertised, Sir Robert Stuart of Sir Phelims intention of comming that way, who marched to Raphoe with 2500, Horse and Foote, and sent 400. Horse to the Ford, and laid 2000. Musquieteers in Ambush hard by the Ford, and then Sir Robert Stuart sent a hundred poore Men with 40. Cowes the which when Sir Phelim Oneale saw he sent over 1100 Men to pursue them, but the poore Men as plotted before hand, seing these 1100: Men approaching ran away, and left the Cowes behind them, whereupon Sir Phelim 1100. Men ran in disorder to pursue them whereupon Sir Robert Stuarts Horse seing them in disorder, fell upon them and they fled toward the Ford, when the two thousand Musquieteers upon their

Digitized by
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Original from
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Digitized by
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Digitized by
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Digitized by
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Digitized by
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Original from
UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME