ABOUT THE TITLE

From a letter of the publisher to Leon R. Harris:

Because there is no accepted definition of the Negro who passes as white, I suggest you title your book Run, Zebra, Run! The zebra is black and white. Is he black with white stripes, or white with black stripes? Put him against a white background and he is black; put him against a black background and he is white. When his camouflage fails, he becomes prey to the beasts of the jungle and his only escape is to run.
