Dr. H. JOANNE HARRAR assumed the post of director of libraries at the University of Maryland at College Park early in September.

H. Joanne Harrar

Dr. Harrar succeeds Howard Rovelstad, who retired in June after a thirty-five-year association with the University of Maryland. Dr. Harrar received her B.A. from Oberlin College and M.L.S. and Ph.D. from Rutgers University, and brings to her new position a wealth of experience. She was assistant to the director, Columbia University Library, from 1961 to 1963. From 1963 to 1970, Dr. Harrar was professor of library science at Winthrop College, Rockhill, South Carolina. In 1971 she was appointed associate director of libraries at the University of Georgia.

Dr. Harrar is a member of the Southeastern Library Association and has served as editor of the Southeastern Librarian since 1972. She is a member of the ACRL Board of Directors and of ALA Council and was for several years on the Editorial Board of College & Research Libraries.

PAMELA W. REEVES has been appointed associate director of the Center of Educational Resources, Eastern Michigan University, effective June 2, 1975.

Pamela W. Reeves

Since 1965, Ms. Reeves has been on the library staff at Cuyahoga Community College, Metropolitan Campus, in Cleveland, Ohio, where she attained the rank of associate librarian for administration and served for a time as acting campus librarian. Her duties have included readers' services, book selection, development and monitoring of automated procedures, and administration.

During a sabbatical leave in 1971/72, she conducted an extensive survey of community college library practices resulting in the publication of "Junior College Libraries Enter the Seventies" in College & Research Libraries (January 1973).

Ms. Reeves came into the library field via information retrieval, having worked with the Western Reserve University Center for Documentation and Communication Research during the early 1960s. While at WRU she was the principal author of The Library of Tomorrow—Today; An Information Service of Educational Research Materials (Center for Documentation and Communication Research, Western Reserve University, 1962), an Office of Education-sponsored study which generated ERIC. She is also the author of a chapter on "Analysis and Searching of Education Research Literature" in Information Retrieval in Action (WRU Press, 1963).

Ms. Reeves has a B.A. degree from Smith College, an M.A. in history from Western Reserve University, and an M.S.L.S. from Western Reserve. Her M.A. thesis on Lake Erie history was published in Inland Seas, the quarterly journal of the Great Lakes Historical Society, during 1958/59.

A member of ALA, SLA, and the Council on Library Technology, she served as an SLA chapter officer in 1973/74. She has also been active in local politics and in various campus organizations.

Classified Advertising

NOTICE

Respondents to advertisers offering faculty "rank" and "status" are advised that these terms are ambiguous and should inquire as to benefits involved.

All advertisements submitted by institutions offering positions must include a salary range. The range should provide the applicant with an indication of the salary the institution is willing to provide for the position offered.

All advertisements for the Positions Wanted and the Positions Open classifications will be edited to exclude direct or indirect references to race, creed, color, age, and sex as conditions of employment.

Classified advertising orders and copy, and cancellations, should be addressed to the Advertising Department, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago 60611, and should reach that office before the second of the month preceding publication of issue desired. Copy received after that time may be held for the next issue.

Telephone orders for classified advertising, while not encouraged because of the increased risk of copy error, will be accepted. Calls should be directed to Leona Swiech at (312) 944-6780. A confirming order should be mailed to the Advertising Department as soon as possible following the call, along with typewritten copy to be used in proofreading the ad.

Rate for classified advertising is $1.30 per printed line.
