ACRL candidates visit Headquarters

Jacquelyn M. Morris, college librarian at Occidental College, Los Angeles, and John C. Tyson, newly appointed state librarian of the Commonwealth of Virginia, spent October 18, 1990, visiting ALA and ACRL Headquarters. Morris and Tyson are candidates for ACRL vice-president/president-elect in the spring 1991 election.

Morris and Tyson met with ACRL and ALA staff to review the responsibilities of the vice-president/president-elect. The visit is designed to help the winner make an easier transition into office.
