
And the winners are. . .

Here are the official ACRL election results.

Anne K. Beaubien

Jacquelyn McCoy

ANNE K. BEAUBIEN, head of cooperative access services at the University of Michigan Libraries (Ann Arbor, MI 48109), is the 54th president of the Association of College and Research Libraries. Beaubien will focus on the recruitment of quality people to academic librarianship during her one-year term of office. (See July/August C&RL News, page 427, for a more detailed description of her plans.) As president she will preside over the ACRL Board of Directors and the ACRL Executive Committee, chair the ACRL Conference Program Planning Committee for the 1992 Annual Conference in San Francisco, and plan ACRL's major program at the conference.

Beaubien will represent ACRL on the ALA San Francisco Conference Planning Program Committee and on the ALA Planning and Budget Assembly. She will also represent ACRL and ALA in their relations with other organizations.

Beaubien has served on the ACRL Board of Directors in 1978–1980 and 1986–1990. She was chair of the Anthropology and Sociology Section in 1979–1980, the BIS Continuing Education Committee in 1981–1984, and the BIS Subcommittee on Professional Organization in 1977–1980. Beaubien has also been active in the Reference and Adult Services Division and the Michigan chapter of the Special Libraries Association.

JACQUELYN MCCOY (formerly Jacquelyn McCoy Morris), college librarian at Occidental College (Los Angeles, CA 90041) has been elected vice-president/president-elect of the Association of College and Research Libraries. The 1991 election results showed 1,357 votes for McCoy and 1,318 votes for John C. Tyson, state librarian at the Virginia State Library and Archives, Richmond.

“Responding to the concerns and needs of present and prospective members of ACRL will be my highest priority in the coming years,” said McCoy. “Although the phrase information age has become something of a cliché, academic and research libraries lie at the heart of efforts to prepare a diverse citizenry for employment and for personal enrichment during a period of rapid technological, economic, social, and political change.”

As vice-president/president-elect of ACRL, McCoy will serve on the ACRL Board of Directors and the ACRL Executive Committee. She will chair the ACRL Conference Program Planning Committee for the 1993 Annual Conference in New Orleans. She will represent ACRL on the ALA Appointments Committee and the ALA Conference Program Planning Committee for the 1993 Conference. At the end of the 1992 Annual Conference she will become ACRL's 55th president.

McCoy has served on the ACRL Planning Committee and the Academic or Research Librarian of the Year Award Committee. She was elected chair of the ACRL College Libraries Section for the 1989–1990 term, chaired the committee that developed ACRL's Standards for College Libraries in 1986, and was a member of the committee that developed output measures for academic libraries resulting in the publication of ACRL's Measuring Academic Library Performance: A Practical Guide. She has also held several appointments in ACRL's Bibliographic Instruction Section, and has authored numerous books and articles on bibliographic instruction and college library standards including Teaching Library Skills for Academic Credit (with Mignon Adams, Oryx Press, 1986).

The results of the ACRL elections follow. For each position the elected candidate is given first, with the number of votes earned in parentheses.
