
ACRL officers for 1988-89

The official ACRL election results.

Joseph A. Boissé

William A. Moffett

JOSEPH A. BOISSÉ, university librarian at the University of California, Santa Barbara (Santa Barbara, CA 93106), is the fifty-first president of the Association of College and Research Libraries. During his one-year term of office, he will preside over the ACRL Board of Directors and the ACRL Executive Committee. He will chair the ACRL Conference Program Planning Committee for the 1989 Annual Conference in Dallas and will plan ACRL's major program at the conference.

As president of the division, Boissé will represent ACRL on the ALA Dallas Conference Program Planning Committee and the ALA Planning and Budget Assembly. He will also represent ACRL and ALA in their relations with other organizations. Boissé has been very active in ACRL and has served on the Legislation, Continuing Education, and Appointments and Nominations Committees. He was a member of the ACRL Task Force on Libraries in Higher Education in 1982-1984 and the LAMA Board of Directors in 1980-1982.

WILLIAM A. MOFFETT, director of libraries at Oberlin College (Oberlin, OH 44074), has been elected vice-president/president-elect of the Association of College and Research Libraries. The 1988 election results showed 1,784 votes for Moffett and 1,009 for David B. Walch, Dean of Library and Audiovisual Services at Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, CA 93407.

As vice-president/president-elect of ACRL, Moffett will serve on the ACRL Board of Directors and the ACRL Executive Committee. He will chair the ACRL Conference Program Planning Committee for the 1990 Annual Conference in Chicago. He will represent ACRL on the ALA Appointments Committee and the ALA Conference Program Planning Committee for the 1990 Conference. At the end of the 1989 Annual Conference he will become ACRL's fifty-second president.

Moffett served as chair of the ACRL College Libraries Section in 1984-85 and was instrumental in establishing the CLS National Advisory Council in 1986. He recently served as chair of the RBMS Security Committee, and has been a member of the Publications and Academic/Research Librarian of the Year Committees. Moffett was a featured speaker at the ACRL National Conference in Seattle in 1984, where he presented his "Reflections of a College Librarian: Looking for Life and Redemption This Side of ARL."

The results of the ACRL elections follow. For each position, the elected candidate is listed first. The number of votes earned by each candidate is given in parentheses.

The International Association for Social Science Information Service and Technology (IASSIST) is an organization which brings together administrators, computer programmers, data archivists, librarians, and researchers interested in quantitative analysis. IASSIST members facilitate access to social science machine-readable data files (MRDFs) as well as promote commitment to the preservation and administration of these resources.

IASSIST was formed in 1974 following the cessation of National Science Foundation funding for the Council of Social Science Data Archives and
