The recipients must enter a formal program of graduate study leading to a degree or advanced certificate at an ALA accredited school. As many scholarships as possible will be awarded, depending upon the total amount of contributed funds. The award may be withheld in any year when there are no worthy recipients. Administered by ALA Awards Committee and the Library Education Division. Application and recommendation forms are available from the jury chairman. Applications must be submitted by January 10, 1971. Persons serving on committees must be willing to provide the time necessary to assume responsibilities resulting from such assignments, attend both the Midwinter and Annual Conferences, and answer correspondence promptly. Suggestions should include full name, complete address, committees to which a person might be appointed, and applicable background for such appointment. The Committee members are especially interested in securing names of individuals who have not previously been appointed to ACRL committees. Suggestions should be forwarded to George M. Bailey (Chairman), Chief Librarian, York College, 158-11 Jewel Ave., Flushing, N.Y. 11365. ■■

From Inside the DLP

By DR. KATHARINE M. STOKES

College and University Library Specialist, Training and Resources Branch, Division of Library Programs, Bureau of Libraries and Educational Technology, U.S. Office of Education, Washington, D.C. 20202.

If you haven't yet seen a copy of Library Statistics of Colleges and Universities: Data for Individual Institutions, Fall 1969 (Publication OE-15023-69), it's probably been resting quietly among your depository items since late August. Its accompanying Analytic Report was still in preparation, but there is hope that it will be out this fall. The format of OE-15023 is much the same as the 1968 version except for a darker shade of green and beige for the cover. This edition bears Dr. Bronson Price's name instead of Joel Williams' but Joel wrote the Foreword before he left the NCES for a non-government position in July. By the end of October, Bronson, too, will be retiring. Ruth Boaz is carrying on as Acting Chief of the Library Surveys Branch, so your questions about the 1969 data can be addressed to her or to Mrs. Doris Holladay, who is still in the Branch, fortunately. Doris can be reached by calling 202-962-7443 or addressing her at the Office of Education, FOB #6, 400 Maryland Avenue, S.W., Room 2153, Washington, D.C. 20202. You will notice that her room number is changed from the 1010 I last reported, but the telephone number is the old one for Dr. Price.

As long as I'm reporting changes, my own telephone number has been changed twice this summer and is now 202-963-4385. My room number is now 5680 in ROB #3, 7th and D Streets, S.W., and I have been transferred to the Training and Resources Branch, headed by Frank Stevens. My title and duties remain much the same, but I am now specifically attached as Program Officer to the Title II-A (HEA) College Library Resources Program. I have been lent to this program in this branch most of my three years in the DLP, but now the relationship is full time.

To go back to Data for Individual Institutions, 1969, copies addressed "To the Librarian" were sent to every institution and every separate campus of an institution, but your mail rooms may have put them with the rest of the flood of government documents received in depository libraries. If desired, an additional copy is obtainable for $1.25 from the Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402. As you will note in Joel's Foreword, 2,122 individual colleges are included in this edition.

No library statistics form is included in the Higher Education General Information Survey (HEGIS) for Fall 1970, due to the higher priorities of other areas, notably school library statistics, which have had no attention for several years. The college and university library
