Lenko Prize in Ukrainian Bibliography

The Harvard Ukrainian Research Institute is accepting submissions for the sixth award of the Lenko Prize in Ukrainian Bibliography. The $1,000 annual prize, established by Mykola and Volodymyra Lenko of Philadelphia will be given for the best bibliographical work on a topic of Ukrainian studies. Entries in English or Ukrainian must be submitted in four copies by March 1, 1986. Manuscripts must be in their final pre-publication form, with the names and addresses of authors. Published works and late submissions will not be considered.

The Lenko Prize Committee will judge the entries according to the following criteria: 1) the importance and originality of the topic; 2) the work's methodology and completeness; 3) the work's contribution to existing bibliographical scholarship. The winner or winners will be announced at Harvard University no later than June 1986.

The fifth Lenko Prize was awarded this year to Vadym Stelmashenko, of New York, for his work entitled, Volodymyr Vynnychenko: An Annotated Bibliography. Volodymyr Vynnychenko (1880-1951) was a prominent Ukrainian novelist, playwright, statesman, and political leader.

Entries for the sixth Lenko Prize should be sent by registered mail to: Lenko Prize in Ukrainian Bibliography, Harvard University, Ukrainian Research Institute, 1581-1583 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge, MA 02138. ■■

by the College of Library and Information Services, University of Maryland, to be held at the Donaldson Brown Center, Port Deposit, Maryland. Participants will include senior administrative personnel of large library systems from North America and abroad. The faculty is made up of well-known scholars, educators, management consultants, and lecturers drawn from universities, government offices, and consulting fields. John Rizzo, professor of management at Western Michigan University, serves as director.

THE CLASSIFIED ADS

Deadlines: Orders for regular classified advertisements must reach the ACRL office on or before the second of the month preceding publication of the issue (e.g., September 2 for the October issue). Late job listings will be accepted on a space-available basis after the second of the month.

Rates: Classified advertisements are $5.00 per line for ACRL members, $6.25 for others. Late job notices are $12.00 per line for members, $14.00 for others. Organizations submitting ads will be charged according to their membership status.

Telephone: All telephone orders should be confirmed by a written order mailed to ACRL headquarters as soon as possible. Orders should be accompanied by a typewritten copy of the ad to be used in proofreading. An additional $10 will be charged for ads taken over the phone (except late job notices or display ads).

Guidelines: For ads which list an application deadline, that date must be no sooner than the 20th day of the month in which the notice appears (e.g., October 20 for the October issue). All job announcements should include a salary figure. Job announcements will be edited to exclude discriminatory references. Applicants should be aware that the terms faculty rank and status vary in meaning among institutions.

JOBLINE: Call (312) 944-6755 for late-breaking job ads for academic and research library positions. A pre-recorded summary of positions listed with the service is revised weekly; each Friday a new tape includes all ads received by 1:00 p.m. the previous day. Each listing submitted will be carried on the recording for two weeks. The charge for each two-week listing is $30 for ACRL members and $35 for non-members.

Fast Job Listing Service: A special newsletter for those actively seeking positions. This service lists job postings received at ACRL headquarters four weeks before they appear in C&RL News, as well as ads which, because of narrow deadlines, will not appear in C&RL News. The cost of a six-month subscription is $10 for ACRL members and $15 for non-members.
