

Arlyne Jackson, librarian of the Littauer Library at Harvard University, has taken a leave from Harvard to participate in the Library of Congress' (LC) Leadership Development Program. The 15-month program is designed to develop leaders for the library profession and increase the number of minority-group librarians prepared to assume library leadership positions. Ten people were selected for the program, which was funded by a gift from John Kluge, chair of the LC Madison Society.

Erlinda J. Regner and Amy D. Seetoo were recently installed as president and vice-president of the Asian/Pacific American Librarians Association (APALA), respectively. Regner is business reference librarian at the Chicago Public Library. Seetoo, who is program assistant with the Michigan Initiative for Women's Health, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, previously served as executive director and president of the Chinese-American Librarians Association.

Andrew H. Wang, director of OCLC's Asia Pacific Services, has been appointed advisor of the National Central Library of Taiwan for 1995. Wang said, "I hope to help the National Central Library and OCLC work closely in providing information to libraries in Taiwan and in strengthening the information bridge between the East and the West."

Shana Fair, formerly acting library director at Ohio University, Zanesville, has been named library director there.

Douglas M. Ferrier is now director of the Arnulfo L. Oliveira Memorial Library at the University of Texas at Brownsville in partnership with Texas Southmost College. He most recently served as dean of the library at Texas Wesleyan University.

Paul Schrodt has been appointed librarian in the John D. Werkman endowed chair of Theological Bibliography at Methodist Theological School in Delaware, Ohio.

Faye Abrams has been appointed document delivery librarian at the University of Waterloo, Ontario.

Scott A. Anderson has been named business/economics librarian at Millersville University in Pennsylvania.

Althea Aschmann is now head of technical services at Emporia State University, Kansas.

Gary D. Byrd has been named director of the Health Sciences Library at the University of Buffalo, State University of New York.

Cindy Buhi has been appointed reference librarian at Belmont Abbey College in North Carolina.

Robert L. Canida has been named automated public services librarian at Pembroke State University, North Carolina.

Joan Carey has been appointed reference librarian at Clark College in Vancouver, Washington.

Ruth Carter has been promoted to assistant director for automated and technical services at the University of Pittsburgh Libraries.

Appointments

Larry Compton is the new librarian for the Reactor Engineering Technology Center at Sandia National Laboratories, Albuquerque.

Ed. note: Entries in this column are taken from library newsletters, letters from personnel offices, individuals using institutional letterhead, and other sources. To ensure that your personnel news is considered for publication, write to Pam Spiegel, Assistant Editor, C&RL News, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611-2795; e-mail: pam.spiegel@ala.org.

Cynthia Cocco has been named assistant professor of bibliography in the Bierce Library at the University of Akron, Ohio.

Adele Combs is now assistant university librarian of general services at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois.

Brian Dunlap has been appointed temporary assistant periodicals librarian at Emporia State University, Kansas.

Patrick Dunn has been appointed acting head of the Interlibrary Loan Division at the University of British Columbia.

Jane Goh is now information services librarian at Stanford University, California. She was mistakenly listed as Joan Goh in the December issue. The editors regret the error.

Charles Green is the new catalog librarian at Pembroke State University, North Carolina.

Nancy Hayes has joined the Science and Technology Library at the University of Akron as life sciences and medical bibliographer.

L. Dexter Honeycutt Jr. has been appointed serials librarian at Pembroke State University, North Carolina.

Kathryn Hornby is now temporary reference librarian in the Woodward Biomedical Library at the University of British Columbia.

Scott Kantor has been named reference librarian at Yakima Valley Community College, Washington.

Kevin Lindstrom has been named reference and outreach librarian in the Science & Engineering Division of the Main Library at the University of British Columbia, Vancouver.

Michael Lorenzen is now bibliographic instructor and reference librarian at Ohio University, Zanesville.

Laura Minott has been named assistant university librarian of public services at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois.

Janet Spaeth has been appointed bibliographic educational services librarian at the University of North Dakota, Grand Forks.

Joe Straw is now assistant professor of bibliography in the Bierce Library at the University of Akron, Ohio.

Richard Stringer-Hye has been named head of access services in the Sarah Shannon Stevenson Library for Science and Engineering at Vanderbilt University, Nashville.

Dajin Sun is now head of East Asian technical services at the University of Pittsburgh.

Morag Sutherland is now journalism, religion, and speech bibliographer at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois.

Pamela Vance has been promoted to associate director of the University of Pittsburgh Libraries.

John Whelan has been appointed reference librarian/selector for the Sarah Shannon Stevenson Library at Vanderbilt University, Nashville.

Jennifer Wu is now a librarian at North Seattle Community College.

Retirements

Graham Elliston recently retired as head of the Gifts and Exchanges Division at the University of British Columbia (UBC), Vancouver, a position he held since 1973. He began working at UBC as a cataloger in 1961.

Helen Mayoh recently retired as science reference librarian at the University of British Columbia, Vancouver, after 19 years in that position.

Willie Scott, acting head of the Undergraduate Library at Southern Illinois University (SIU) at Carbondale, retired at the end of last year. Scott began his career serving as a catalog librarian at four colleges before switching to reference and instruction in 1972, when he joined the Undergraduate Library at SIU. He earned his B.A. from West Virginia State College in 1957, and his MLS from Western Reserve University in 1959.

Martha Shepard, librarian at the Alaska Resources Library in Anchorage, retired in January. She had been working there since the 1970s.

Deaths

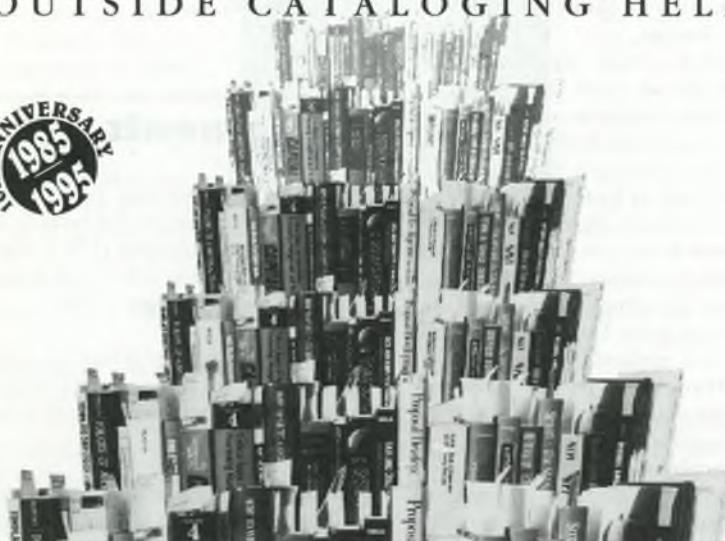

Cheryl Griffin, director of learning resources at Danville Community College (DCC), Virginia, since 1992, and DCC librarian from 1989 to 1992, was found dead at her home in October.

Roland Lanning, head of serials at the University of British Columbia, Vancouver, from 1926 until his retirement in 1965, died late last year at the age of 94. ■

TIME TO CONSIDER OUTSIDE CATALOGING HELP?

10th ANNIVERSARY
1985
1995

THE OCLC TECHPRO SERVICE

WHEN YOU NEED HELP WITH A BACKLOG OR ONGOING SUPPORT, OCLC TECHPRO STAFF CAN MAKE FAST WORK OF YOUR UNCATALOGED MATERIALS.

Technical reports. Difficult formats. Foreign language items. Special collections. Or everyday material. Ohio-based TECHPRO staff will meet your cataloging specifications and your quality demands.

And at a reasonable price. In fact, many libraries discover that TECHPRO lowers their cataloging costs and frees up time for other projects. As your library strives to become more efficient while maintaining your high level of service, shouldn't you explore the OCLC TECHPRO Service?

1-800-848-5878, ext. 4386 6565 Frantz Road, Dublin, Ohio 43017-3395

FURTHERING ACCESS TO THE WORLD'S INFORMATION

Critical Issues in Information

BETTER SAID AND DONE
INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY STANDARDIZATION