RLG initiates new record service with Casalini Libri

The Research Libraries Group (RLG) has launched a new service for its users—direct access to and local use of major book vendor records—with the addition of over 18,000 in-process records, created by the Italian book dealers Casalini Libri from 1994 through July 1995, to the RLIN (Research Libraries Information Network) Books file.

The Casalini records may be exported from RLIN to the local system to create order records or local cataloging.

"We are very pleased about this new venture," said Michele Casalini. "It has been one of our primary concerns over the years to offer a bibliographic information service as complete as possible to libraries abroad. We are delighted that this information can now be of assistance for acquisitions and cataloging, thereby saving library staff a great deal of time."

ALA gets own Internet server

ALA is installing its own Internet server. Please be sure to use the @ala.org addresses to reach ALA and ACRL staff, instead of the numbers previously issued. Generally, ALA Internet addresses take the form of firstname.lastname@ala.org. For a list of ACRL staff e-mail addresses, see page 797 of this issue in the Annual Report, or you can refer to the "Meet the ACRL Staff" article on page 648 of the October issue of C&RL News.

Ohio University celebrates two million volumes

Ohio University (OU) Libraries celebrated its growth to two million volumes with the addition of John C. Baker: An Oral History to its collections. Ohio University was founded in 1804, and Baker was its 14th president, serving from 1945 to 1961. The book, Baker's autobiography, was published by Ohio University Press and was formally presented to the libraries in October at a ceremony to celebrate Baker's 100th birthday and the 50th anniversary of the Ohio University Foundation, an organization created by Baker. ■

Got Books Here: A Poem

Got books here;
lotsa books:
books by the score,
by the peck or bushel:
books.

Getcher books here!
red hot economics,
business and sports books;
Pete Giddings with the weather
in A.V.

Current events,
ancient history,
latest mysteries,
Stephen King—
anything.

You want it, we got it:
books on tape,
on CD-ROM;
music and art
ala carte.
Books here,
getcher books!

Got magazines too;
newspapers—
ain't no finer
bird cage liner—
right here,
got 'em right here:
getcher books.

Sick 'n' tired
of the information
superhighway?
Getcher books
at the information
parking lot!
Rent by the semester!
No charge—
just bring 'em back on time:
getcher books!

Want science?
We got science.
We got reference.
Poly sci? Bali Hai?
Catcher in the Rye?
Values of pi?
We got 'em:
rock bottom
books.

They're what we got:
you really ought
to try 'em—
books.

We got books here.
