Schedule of Midwinter Meetings

SHERMAN HOUSE
CHICAGO, ILL.
JANUARY 18-24, 1970

The following schedules are preliminary. A final schedule with room assignments will be mailed by Mary Cilluffo, assistant for conference arrangements, to officers and chairmen of ALA groups. Each chairman should notify the members of his activity of any changes. If no meeting time is listed, we have not received a request for a meeting from the chairman of the activity in time for the publication deadline. All meetings are business meetings of the group.

The Invisible Product . . . SERVICE

An invisible, intangible product goes into every shipment we send out. That product is Service . . . and it costs you nothing extra. Our clientele can't see it, but they certainly are aware that they are receiving it!

We're proud of the rapid, efficient manner in which we handle your book requirements. Our huge inventory, stocked in our own warehouses . . . our trained personnel . . . our progressive management . . . these are the ingredients that make up our most desirable product—SERVICE!

Send for our brochure and terms.

NOMINATIONS SOUGHT FOR ESTHER J. PIERCY AWARD

Nominations are being sought for the second Esther J. Piercy Award which will be presented by the Resources and Technical Services Division of the American Library Association at the 1970 Annual ALA Conference.

The recipient of the award is to be a librarian who has not had more than ten years of professional experience, but who has shown outstanding promise for continuing contributions and leadership in any of the fields comprising technical services. Accomplishments to be recognized are leadership in professional associations at local, state, regional and national levels; contributions to the development, application, or utilization of new or improved methods, techniques, and routines; significant contributions to professional literature; conduct of studies or research; or teaching in the area of the technical services.

The award is made possible by contributions to a memorial fund for the late Esther J. Piercy. Gifts to the fund are welcome and should be directed to the ALA Resources and Technical Services Division, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago, Illinois 60611. Checks should be made payable to the American Library Association, and should indicate that they are for the Esther J. Piercy Award.

Nominations for this award should be submitted before December 31, 1969, to Carlyle J. Frarey, Chairman, Esther J. Piercy Award Jury, School of Library Service, Columbia University, New York 10027, and should be accompanied by a statement of qualifications and accomplishments.
