Vice-president/ President-elect

Patricia Ann Wand has been a university librarian at American University in Washington, D.C., since 1989. From 1982–1989, she was an assistant university librarian for public services at the University of Oregon. She also held positions at Columbia University, College of Staten Island, and Wittenberg University.

Wand has been an active member of ACRL, chairing the International Relations Committee (1996–97); serving as a member of the 7th National Conference Executive Committee (1993–95); chairing the Government Relations Committee (1993–94); and chairing of the Budget and Finance Committee (1986–88), during which time she served as a member of the ACRL Board of Directors.

Patricia Ann Wand

She has also served on the ALA Committee of Legislation's Intellectual Property Subcommittee (1995–97) and on the White House Conference Committee (1989–95).

Wand is active beyond ALA/ACRL, serving as a District of Columbia delegate at National Library Legislative Day in 1995 and 1996, and chairing OCLC's Advisory Committee on College and University Libraries from 1993–94. She was president of the District of Columbia Library Association (1996–97) and served on its Board (1993–95). She is also a current member of the Maryland Library Association and was a member of the Oregon Library Association from 1982–89.

Her awards include the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the University of Michigan in 1992, and the Fulbright Senior Lecture Award in 1989.

She is an active Choice reviewer and author. Her recent publications include "Copyright and fair use: Maintaining a balanced environment" (Intercom, 1997) and "Commentary: Technological change, intellectual property, and academic libraries; an outline of the issues" (Science Communication, 1995).

Wand has a B.A. from Seattle University, a M.A.T. from Antioch Graduate School, and an MLS from the University of Michigan.

Betsy Wilson has been the associate director of Libraries for Public Services at the University of Washington since 1992. She also serves as executive director of the Leopoldo Cicognara Program (University of Illinois/Vatican Library). From 1986–92 she was the assistant director of Libraries for Undergraduate and Instructional Services at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and held other positions there from 1979–86.

Lizabeth (Betsy) Wilson

Wilson has been active in ACRL and ALA and currently serves as the co-chair of the Colleagues Committee and as chair of a University Libraries Section's discussion group. She chaired the Instruction Section from 1991–92, the Activity Sections Council from 1990–91, and is currently a member of the Institute for Information Literacy Advisory Group. She also served as an ALA Council member-at-large from 1991–95.

She is very active in other organizations currently serving on the OCLC User's Council from 1996–2001, the Seattle Educational Pipeline Project's Advisory Board, and the University of Washington's Web Initiative Steering Committee. Previously she chaired the Il-

Illinois State Library's Automation Committee from 1986–90 and served as president of the University of Illinois Library School Association from 1987–88.

She has received numerous awards including the Senior Fellows Institute, 1997; the ACRL/IS Miriam Dudley Bibliographic Instruction Library Award, 1995; and the Library Instruction Roundtable's Top Twenty Publications Award for 1991.

Her recent publications include "UWired: Enhancing Teaching, Learning, and Technology through Collaboration" (Collaboration and Instructional Design in a Virtual Environment, 1997) and "The User-centered Library" (RQ, 1995). Wilson has also presented numerous papers and poster sessions and now serves on two editorial boards.

Wilson has a B.A. from Northwestern University and an MLS from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Community & Junior College Libraries

... the journal for learning resources centers

Editor: Michael David Rusk, MLS

Dean, Learning Resources Center,
Tulsa Community College, Oklahoma

"Provides an opportunity for information sharing among community college librarians and other LRC staff members ... The contributors, who are engaged in professional activity in community colleges all around the land, write from their own experiences, sharing their ideas and opinions, and often providing valuable examples of surveys and assessment instruments. ... Highly readable and contain[s] useful information."

—Dr. Gloria Terwilliger, Director, Learning Resources & Academic Computing, Northern Virginia Community College

Under the editorship of Dean Rusk, the distinctive, dynamic nature of learning resources centers in two-year colleges will continue to be focused on, with the professional contributions made by these colleges highlighted. Contributors to this resource present profiles of LRCs around the country and address news of special relevance—legislation, systems development, and various concerns faced by professionals in the libraries and information centers of two-year colleges.
