

and the BCL III Advisory Committee will be studying the updating issue in the next few years and making recommendations to Choice and ACRL for a more current review and revision cycle.

The high degree of involvement of the Choice staff and reviewer pool in the revision of BCL is indicative of their commitment to publish usable, high quality collection development resources for academic libraries.

C&RL News readers who would like to volunteer or to recommend colleagues for the librarian review stage of the BCL III project are invited to submit names and a statement of subject interest and qualifications to Virginia Clark, Editor BCL, Choice, 100 Riverview Center, Middletown, CT 06457.
