

librarian. Further, our relationship with career development has been enhanced greatly through our mutual planning and interaction.

Concluding remarks

Ought we to recruit for our profession? We say yes, and with an enthusiastic recommendation that you try something similar to our initial attempt! (You will need a minimum budget of about $300). The planning involved in a such venture is considerable, but the visibility and reward that accrue in the process are gratifying. In higher education we are in the business of opening the minds of our students. That "library and information science" exists will be revelatory to many. That it is a true academic discipline will be shocking to most. But the study and practice of librarianship in its growing dimensions will be pleasantly surprising to at least a few.

The author wishes to thank his colleague, Daniel J. Howell, for his criticism and editorial assistance. ■■

ACRL officers for 1984-85

The official ACRL election results.

SHARON J. ROGERS, university librarian at George Washington University (Washington, DC 20052), is the forty-seventh president of the Association of College and Research Libraries. During her one-year term of office, she will preside over the ACRL Board of Directors and the ACRL Executive Committee. She will chair the ACRL Conference Program Planning Committee for the 1985 ALA Annual Conference in Chicago and will plan ACRL's major program at the conference.

Sharon J. Rogers

As president of the division, Rogers will represent ACRL on the ALA Chicago Conference Program Committee. She will also represent ACRL and ALA in their relations with other organizations. Rogers has contributed to ACRL as a member of the ACRL Board of Directors, as chair of the Task Force on Academic Libraries and Higher Education, as chair of the Advisory Committee for the Bibliographic Instruction

Liaison Project, and as chair of the Bibliographic Instruction Section (1980-1981). Last year she served as chair of the Legislation Subcommittee of the ALA Status of Women in Librarianship Committee, and as a member of the OHIONET On-Line Reference Council.

SHARON ANNE HOGAN, director of the Troy Middleton Library, Louisiana State University (Baton Rouge, LA 70803), has been elected vice-president/president-elect of the Association of College and Research Libraries. The 1984 election results showed 1,240 votes for Hogan and 1,024 for Janice T. Koyama, head of Moffitt Undergraduate Library at the University of California, Berkeley.

Sharon Hogan

As vice-president/president-elect of ACRL, Hogan will serve on the ACRL Board of Directors and the ACRL Executive Committee. She will chair the ACRL

Conference Program Planning Committee for the 1986 Annual Conference in New York. She will represent ACRL on the ALA Appointments Committee, the ALA Planning and Budget Assembly, and the ALA Conference Program Planning Committee for the 1986 conference. At the end of the 1985 Annual Conference, she will become ACRL's forty-eighth president.

Hogan has been very active in ACRL and currently serves as chair of the Task Force on ACRL/ALA Relations and as a member of the ACRL Budget and Finance Committee (since 1980). In 1979-1980 she was chair of the Bibliographic Instruction Section. She is co-founder and co-editor of the periodical Research Strategies and co-author of Learning the Library: Concepts and Methods for Effective Bibliographic Instruction, published in 1982.

Hogan began her appointment at LSU on July 9, coming from Temple University where she was acting director since 1983. From 1971 to 1982 she held several positions at the University of Michigan where she received her MLS in 1968.

The results of the ACRL elections follow. For each position, the elected candidate is listed first. The number of votes earned by each candidate is listed in parentheses.
