Gallaudet College Tour

A tour of the new Learning Center of Gallaudet College (the only liberal arts college in the world designed exclusively for hearing-impaired students) is offered free of charge to ALA Midwinter Conference participants on Tuesday morning, January 10.

Transportation will be provided by Gallaudet College, and will leave the Sheraton Washington about 9:00 a.m. Tours of the Learning Center should take approximately 2 hours including round trip. Contact Judy Cox, Administrative Support Librarian, Gallaudet College Library, 800 Florida Avenue, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20002, (202) 651-5566, for more information and reservations. Please note if you would also wish to see the new exhibit on deafness, The Look of Sound, and the college bookstore.

The Learning Center, which opened January 1981, integrates the resources and services of Gallaudet College Library and parts of College Educational Resources (television, instructional development, photography). There are both traditional and specially designed classrooms throughout the building.
