

Oregon State University (OSU) Libraries has been awarded a National Leadership Grant for Libraries from the Institute of Museum and Library Services in the amount of $155,464. This two-year Demonstration Project, led by OSU in collaboration with the University of Oregon, Purdue University, the Georgia Institute of Technology, and Pennsylvania State University, will facilitate a multi-university study of faculty data management plans (DMPs). DMPs provide a window into the detailed individual data management habits, capabilities, and needs of faculty and their graduate students.

Acquisitions

The photo archive of El Diario La Prensa, the nation's oldest continuously publishing

Spanish-language newspaper, has been acquired by Columbia University Libraries/Information Services' Rare Book & Manuscript Library. The collection, which dates from the 1960s and includes more than 5,000 photographs, documents the lives of New York City's Latino population, their struggles, and their contributions to the city and its culture. The collection includes photos of entertainers, politicians, community events, parades, protests, and sporting events: Mayor David Dinkins at the 1990 Puerto Rican Day parade, children at a Three Kings Day celebration in East Harlem, Fernando Ferrer campaigning for Bronx borough president in 1986, and Tito Puente playing the timbales on Sesame Street with Elmo, among many others. ~

We play nice together

Now there are even more reasons for ILLiad users to adopt Ares for e-reserves and Aeon for special collections management.

Save staff time with the synergy of workflow addons that work across all three Atlas products.

Improve research services by seamlessly processing ILL requests for special collections materials through ILLiad and Aeon in tandem.

 ATLAS SYSTEMS
Library Excellence Through Efficiency

Isn't it nice to see our family of products playing nice together?
