Wouldn't you and SBIDA be a perfect professional fit?

- YES ...if you have a strong interest in the growth and prosperity of small, entrepreneurial, and family-owned businesses.
- YES ...if you believe that collegiate business management education is strengthened by experiential learning opportunities.
- YES ...if your academic program, Small Business Institute™, SBDC, or management assistance center strives to give small business and entrepreneurship issues equal exposure to those of large business.
- YES ...if you have a strong interest in small business consulting and/or small business case writing.

Our publications and regional and national conferences explore issues, trends, and managerial training for small, entrepreneurial, and family-owned businesses. Student development is encouraged and supported through our Small Business Institute™ Program, the preeminent small business field case consulting program in the United States.
